GRAVES FAMILY NEWS

Mr. Donald Graves Meyer, 2918 Lexham Rd., Louisville, KY 40220, descended from JOHN GRAVES and Sarah Noble of MD & KY, wrote: "I am sorry to inform you that my aunt, Mary Kathryn Graves, passed away on Sept. 8, 1999. She was born Oct. 18, 1915 in Louisville, KY. Her parents were John Cecil Graves and Mable Ludlow. She never married. She had two sisters, Dorothy Ann Graves Meyer and Martha Cecil Graves Goetz. My mother is living here in Louisville. Martha passed away in Jan. 1999. Mary Kathryn was very proud of her Graves ancestry. Services will be tomorrow, Sept. 11, 1999, from St. Agnes Catholic Church, with burial in St. Louis Cemetery, Louisville, KY."

Dr. Wallace J. Graves, 3802 Lucena Court, Grand Prairie, TX 75052 (ipatx30@flash.net), descended from Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of

VA, wrote: "It is with great sadness that I write to tell you that my Mom, Dr. Geraldine Nancy Graves, "Jeri", died Sept. 14, 1999 in Littleton, Colorado. She was 67 years young (Dec. 9, 1931). She was diagnosed with cancer in her lung in August and went quickly.

She was Director of the Medical Library at St. George Medical School in Grenada, British West Indies. They will be dedicating the new library there in January 2000 and naming it in her honor. That had been her consuming passion for the past 3 years, getting it designed and built."

He previously lost his Dad, Wallace Dewitt Graves, Oct. 10, 1996, and misses them both very much.

GRAVES BOY SHOT AT COLUMBINE HIGH SCHOOL

Mrs. Karen R. Buffum-Knutson Baker, 3885 Meade St., Denver, CO 80211-1948 (karen_baker@yahoo.com), sent information about an article in the Denver Rocky Mountain News, June 20, 1999. It is available online at <http://www.insidedenver.com/shooting/0620grav2.shtml>. An abridged version of the article follows.

Injured Columbine student takes first painful steps

Sean Graves, shot in abdomen and nicked in the spine, finally regaining feeling in his legs

By Rebecca Jones

Denver Rocky Mountain News Staff Writer

LITTLETON -- Sean Graves got out of his wheelchair for the first time and walked last week.

The 15-year-old wore leg braces, and he couldn't go far before pain stopped him. But he counts those few steps as his greatest victory since a bullet nicked his spine during the April 20 shootings at Columbine High School.

He may never be able to walk unassisted. His goal is to walk with no more than a crutch for support.

How long that might take is anybody's guess.

"That's the toughest part," says Randy Graves, 38, Sean's father. "We don't know if it will be six months or six years before he can walk again. We don't know how to prepare for what's next. But we're hopeful that by this time next year, we'll be doing everything we used to do as a family."

Such as fishing. Sean loves fishing. He and his best friend, Lance Kirklin, spent just about every day last summer fishing at Chatfield Reservoir.

He and Lance haven't seen much of each other since the shooting. They were together, with Dan Rohrbough, when it happened. They were heading out the front door when they were shot, just outside the school door.

Sean had remained alert throughout most of his ordeal. Despite being hit in the abdomen by three bullets -- one of which nicked his spine as it exited his body -- and grazed on the neck by a fourth, he began crawling back into the school, a liter bottle of Cherry Coke in his hand.

He was alert when firefighters pulled him and Lance to safety, despite the gunfire that rained down on them from the library above them. And he knew that Dan hadn't survived...

It's been a difficult two months for the Graves family -- ever since the moment Natalie Graves, 38, a secretary at Lockheed Martin, strolled through the lobby at her office and overheard the guard's police scanner reporting gunshots at Columbine...

Since the shooting, the Graveses have juggled Sean's needs with work responsibilities and caring for Seth, Sean's 13-year-old brother. Randy Graves returned to work part time about three weeks ago, but he continues to spend most nights at Craig. He also spends afternoons there to help Sean with his therapy.

Natalie has also returned to work, but she devotes her afternoons to Seth before returning to the hospital for the evening.

"I was counting it up," Randy Graves told his wife, "and since April 20, I've only spent eight nights at home with you."

They have shunned the media until now, preferring to focus their attention on their family.

"It was just too much," Natalie Graves said, referring to the media bombardment they've faced. "We just needed to be with Sean, not worry about who'd be going on Oprah."

Sean has been able to leave the hospital for brief periods for about a month. He's been spending his weekend days at home since Memorial Day, though he must return to the hospital at night. Doctors estimate he may be able to leave the hospital for good in about three weeks, though he must return for daily therapy.

Having Sean home will present challenges. Their home is not accessible to wheelchairs. Doors will need to be widened, ramps installed, the garage widened, the bathroom refitted to accommodate Sean's needs and his bedroom moved from the basement to the first floor.

Then there's the kitchen.

"When Sean was younger and he was a bad boy, we'd have to ground him from cooking," his mother said. "We'd come home from work and he wouldn't have done his homework, but he'd have these elaborate meals prepared..."

On the hearth by the living room fireplace is the bottle of Cherry Coke Sean was clutching when rescuers reached him. It had lain just inside the door at the school until one day earlier this month when Sean and his parents returned to Columbine to tour the crime scene. A police officer reached for the bottle to prop open the door.

Sean recognized it as his, and now the family keeps it as a reminder of how much worse things could have been.

"I think, overall, this will just draw us closer as a family," Randy Graves said. "Tragedy brings you closer. We know because we've been through tragedy before."...

Donations to help the Graves family may be sent to the Sean Graves Recovery Fund, 1st Bank, 6701 S. Wadsworth Blvd., Littleton, CO 80123.

CELEBRATION OF THE 400th ANNIVERSARY OF JAMESTOWN, VA & THE ARRIVAL OF CAPT. THOMAS GRAVES

The Graves Family Association plans to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the arrival of Capt. Thomas Graves in the colony. He arrived with the second supply, probably in October 1608.

Questions that need to be answered include whether we should celebrate in 1607, at the same time as the Jamestowne Society has its celebration, or in 1608, and all the many details of the event. Where should we have it, how long, what activities, etc.

If you have ideas and would like to be involved in the planning, please contact Ken Graves, 20 Binney Circle, Wrentham, MA 02093, ken.graves@gravesfa.org, 508-384-8084.

ADDRESS CHANGES

Ms. Linda D. Walfield, descended from JOHN GRAVES of Concord, MA, has moved from Randolph, VT to 6931 U.S. Rt. 2, North Hero, VT 05474.

Mrs. Jackie K. Stamper, descended from CHARLES L. GRAVES and Amanda Eaves of NC & MO, has moved from Osage Beach, MO to 36 Hickory Ct., Lake Ozark, MO 65049-9478.

Dr. Allen E. Gamble, descended from Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of VA, has moved from Nikayuna, NY to 311 Nature Trail Dr., Greer, SC 29651.

They moved in July and the reason is interesting. Both Allen and his wife Janis have National Health Service Corps service obligations. The program paid for 3 years of medical school for both of them, and they pay back with 3 years of work in underserved areas. The Greenville/Spartanburg area of SC is where they were able to find jobs for both of them. This sounds like a worthwhile program.

Miss Jimmy E. Dowell of Houston, TX, descended from JAMES GRAVES and Elizabeth ----- of SC & GA, has moved to 7400 Clarewood Dr., #524, Houston, TX 77036.

Mrs. Mary H. Lively of Louisville, KY, descended from Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of VA, has moved to 5100 Monaco Dr., Louisville, KY 40219-2849.

Mrs. Nancy Ruth Weaks of Albuquerque, NM, descended from BACHELOR or BARTLETT GRAVES and Rhoda Clay of VA & Wilson Co., TN, has moved to 5525 Edwards Dr. NE, Albuquerque, NM 87111-1986.

ADDITIONS TO QUAKER FAMILY OF THOMAS GRAVES OF NEW CASTLE CO., DE

The April 1999 issue of the newsletter featured the family of Thomas Graves of Delaware and various family segments that were thought to possibly be related. Two families have now been found to be descended from this Thomas Graves.

One is Anna R. Graves and Sylvester Ratcliff of OH (gen. 797), pages 39-40 of that issue. Her descent is: Thomas¹, Samuel², John³, Thomas⁴, Jonathan⁵, John H.⁶, Anna R.⁷ Graves.

The other is Joab Graves and Elizabeth Schreck (gen. 72), which was not even in the newsletter issue. Joab Graves is a son of Jonathan⁵ Graves in the preceding paragraph.

As is the standard procedure when a genealogy is found to be part of an earlier genealogy, these 2 genealogies have been added to the Thomas Graves genealogy and removed from the master list of ancestors and from the Graves Family Association website. In looking at the genealogies and ancestors on the website, if anyone sees other genealogies that they can place as part of earlier genealogies, please let us know.

QUESTIONS AND INFORMATION

GRAVES/GREAVES FAMILIES OF THE BRITISH ISLES, AUSTRALIA & CANADA

Mrs. Yvonne M. Harris, 45 Devonshire St., Walkerville 5081, South Australia, Australia (ybharris@dove.net.au), is searching for the ancestry in England of her GEORGE GRAVES, discussed in the following genealogy.

She thinks that there might be a connection to the family of English Admirals (on the GFA website as gen. 68, Graves Family of Yorkshire & Mickleton Manor, Gloucestershire, England) because of a snuff box, with the crest of Lord Nelson, belonging to George Graves. She is investigating the possibility that George was descended from Rev. John Graves and Jane Hudson of this genealogy, who had sons Samuel, Thomas and Richard, all admirals. This family lived in Devon, England, and in Londonderry, Ireland. She has also seen reference to a son George born to Rev. John Graves, attending the Exeter 2nd Academy with his brothers Admiral John and Admiral Sir Thomas Graves, but cannot find any other record of this George. Another question is where the name Austin (used for one of George's sons and in later generations) came from. Help is needed.

DESCENDANTS OF GEORGE GRAVES AND MARY ANN ROACH OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA

GENERATION 1

George Graves (1) was born in 1817, died 21 Oct. 1867 at age 49, and was buried two days later in the Roman Catholic Cem. at Kapunda, South Australia. He married Mary Ann Roach by banns (not found) on 28 Nov. 1850 in Christchurch United Church of England, North Adelaide, Australia. George was a 33 year old brickmaker and Mary Ann a 30 year old spinster. Witnesses to the marriage were Emmanuel Roach and Caroline Harvy. Mary Ann was born 14 Aug. 1820 and died 24 May 1894. She was Catholic and, like George, there are no shipping or passenger arrival records for her. No connection has been found to either of the witnesses to the marriage.

At present the only connection to George's familial roots is a snuff box, bearing the crest of Lord Nelson, passed on to his family at his death. There is no recorded evidence to show that George was born in Australia, and no available shipping or passenger records to establish his arrival. Early colonists first arrived in South Australia in 1837 and for a number of years spasmodic newspaper entries recorded a few select names. Despite the presence of other Graves families in early State records, no known oral history or documentation can connect them to this family.

Very early birth and baptism records are very sparse and badly damaged and a number of years are missing. George and Mary Ann's first-born child Austin was not recorded. However, South Australian Railway records show his birth date and place as 19 Nov. 1849 at Bowden, South Australia. Although Austin was born 12 months before his parents' marriage, later family records, together with early known attitudes toward Catholics in the colony, support the belief that he is a Graves rather than a Roach descendant.

The South Australian Company was established and financed in England with the intention of excluding convicts and Catholics although, by the 1850's, records show that both 'species' had made their way there by various means. Because of Company policy, there were relatively few Catholic priests in the colony during this period, resulting in a large number of births out of wedlock. Records also show that a number of marriages were eventually undertaken in C of E churches when the birth of a second or third child was imminent.

There are no land or assessment records until 1852 when George paid taxes to the Hindmarsh District Council (assessment no. 48, north of section 468, full annual value £4) as the owner of an unfinished house on 2 allotments at 9 Sixth Street in the Village of Bowden. On 16 July 1852 he was recorded as a Yeoman of Bowden when he bought part section 354 (provincial survey B656) in the same village. George paid £100 sterling for this parcel of land, purchased from Henry Denny, which he resold 10 months later to John Hocking for a profit of £50. During the following two years, George was referred to as a brickmaker when he continued to speculate in the purchase and sale of 11 more parcels of land in both Bowden and the neighboring village of Brompton. The size and value of these transactions, which were sold within months of purchase, varied, and the individual profits ranged between 50% and 150%.

All properties in Adelaide had been sold by 1858 and the family had moved to Mount Remarkable, in the far north of the state, where the last child Hannah was born. Although her birth, on the 10th of September, was not registered, details were recorded by a Jesuit priest who was the celebrant at her baptism 9 days later. In October, George gave his birth year as 1817 when he was received into the Catholic Church by the same Jesuit priest from the Sevenhill Village Mission based at Clare. Although it has not been determined why the family moved to the mid-north of South Australia, this was a period of mineral discovery that saved the colony from bankruptcy. Because of his previous land speculation, George may have been lured by the dream of further quick profits.

Sometime during the next nine years the family moved to the township of Kapunda in the area known as the wheat belt of the state. George returned to the brickmaking business and the township's redbrick buildings are a remaining legacy of that agricultural boom period. George died in 1867 and was buried in Kapunda. During the next 27 years, Mary Ann moved to Davenport, near Pt. Augusta in the far north of the state. When she died, her "lonely death" was recorded in the local newspaper. She was buried in the Pt. Augusta general cemetery.

Ms. Concetta Franco, 4875 143rd St. West, Apple Valley, MN 55124 (cfbandit@aol.com), is looking for the ancestry of DANIEL

GENERATION 1

Daniel Graves (1) was born in New Hampshire. He married Mary Ferguson. She was born in Vt. After marriage they settled in Ontario, Canada, where they resided for the rest of their lives. They both died somewhere in Ontario, place and dates unknown.

One possible connection for Daniel Graves is the descendants of William Graves of Dover, N.H. One of William's granddaughters, Mary Graves, is believed to have married Stephen Hazelton, and one of the sons of Daniel Graves was named Hazelton. Also, one of the descendants of William Graves was a Daniel Graves, possibly born about 1770, the name of whose wife is not known, whose father John was born in Hampton, N.H. and died in Andover, N.H. Daniel lived in Barton, Vt., and also had a son named Daniel, born either in N.H. or Vt. This Daniel, son of Daniel, could have been the one who married Mary Ferguson.

MISCELLANEOUS GRAVES FAMILIES

Mrs. Rose Ann Lockhart Maul, 5709 Piedra Rd. NW, Albuquerque, NM 87114 (rosea@spinnone.spinn.net), is looking for the ancestry of her EMMA or AMY GRAVES. Emma Graves married Dennis Maul or Maule on 24 Dec. 1885 in Tuscola, Michigan. She was born about 1864 in Canada. Later on a birth certificate she listed herself as Amy Graves. Dennis died 28 June 1930, and is buried in Kingston Township, Cato, Michigan. Emma or Amy remarried and moved to the Seattle, WA area, and died in 1954 or 1955. The child of Emma and Dennis was Donald G. Maul. Donald had 2 sons and 2 daughters.

Mr. Michael Sandridge, 527 Aberdeen Ave., Apt. D, Kettering, OH 45419 (Pooky4830@aol.com), is looking for the ancestry of his gg-grandfather GEORGE WASHINGTON GRAVES and he has sent the information below.

(ED. NOTE: It should be fairly easy to get back at least one more generation by checking the 1860 and 1870 census records for Indiana to find George as a child in the household of his parents.)

DESCENDANTS OF GEORGE WASHINGTON GRAVES AND ELIZA A.
----- OF IN & OH

GENERATION 1

George Washington Graves (1) was born July 1850 (or possibly 1849) in Indiana. According to the 1900 census for Napoleon, Harrison Twp., Henry Co., OH, he was 49 when the census was taken, his father was born in VA, possibly that part that is now WV. He married Eliza A. -----. She was born Sept. 1854, she was 45 when the 1900 census was taken, they had been married for 26 years, and her father was born in PA. Both children of George and Eliza were born in Indiana.

- 3. Laura Graves, b. Aug. 1876.

GENERATION 2

Dallas Franklin Graves (2) was born 27 Aug. 1878 in Indiana, and died between 1968-1970 in Ohio or Michigan. He first married Etta F. Lindley on 30 Sept. 1900 in Napoleon, Henry Co., OH. She was born 27 March 1878, died 1 Aug. 1910, and was buried in Glenwood Cem., Napoleon, OH. They had no known children. He married second Idella (or Adella) Eleanor Sasser 1911-1913. She was born 29 Sept. 18--, and died in 1928 in Ann Arbor, MI. They moved around some in OH and MI.

- 8. Glendola Graves, b. 30 March 1928, m. Dan Vandencreek. Living in Kalamazoo, MI in 1999.

Mr. Sandridge did check the census records and believes that his George W. Graves was a son of Benjamin Graves and Emily J. Stretch, descended from JOHN GRAVES of Frederick Co., VA. However, it is of some concern that the children of George, son of Benjamin, in the preceding information don't match what is in the GFA genealogy in the next 2 paragraphs. Also, the name of the wife is different, the date of birth of George is different, and there is the question of why George would have been born in IN, lived in Henry Co., OH, and then died in Tippecanoe Co., IN. Can anyone help?

Benjamin ("Dick") Graves (67) was born about 1822 in Ohio. He married Emily J. Stretch, daughter of Thomas Stretch and Antha Munger, on 27 March 1845 in Tippecanoe Co., Ind. She was born about 1829 in Ohio. All their children were born in Indiana.

Children - Graves

- +239. George W. Graves, b. 13 Sept. 1846, m. Mary Moorehouse, 3 Feb. 1876, d. 15 Oct. 1934.

- 241. Edith Jane Graves, b.c. 1852.
- 242. Margaret Graves, b.c. 1857.
- 243. Roy Graves; might be the Willie Graves listed in 1880 census for Tippecanoe Co., Ind.

George W. Graves (239) was born 13 Sept. 1846 in Indiana, and died 15 Oct. 1934 in Tippecanoe Co., Ind. He married Mary Moorehouse on 3 Feb. 1876 in Tippecanoe Co. She was born 14 May 1842, and died 26 Nov. 1905 in Tippecanoe. She may have been a daughter of Levi J. Moorehouse and Lucy Key. (The 1880 census showed that George's wife died before 1880. It appears that either her death date is wrong or George married twice.) Both the following children were born in Indiana.

Children - Graves

458. Dora Graves, b. 1877.

459. Everet Graves, b. 1879.

Mike also sent information that he found in the marriage records for Henry Co., OH. MARTIAL T. GRAVES married Emma Fenton on 16 Oct. 1900 in Henry Co., OH. Martial was born 17 July 1858 in Stathborn, Ontario, Canada. His father was Peter W. Graves and mother Hannah Warner (probably Warren). Emma was a widow when she married Martial, so Fenton was her married name. Her parents were Nathan Warden (probably Warren) and Eliza Cornell. Emma was born 20 Nov. 1853 in East Union, Coshocton Co., OH. Martial and Emma lived in Ridgeville, Henry Co., OH. He was a pension attorney. Since Emma was married before, maybe Martial was also.

ED. NOTE: Martial was descended from JOSIAH GRAVES of MA: Josiah¹, Joseph² (or Josiah) m. Mary Beard, Peter³, Martial⁴. His family is in the next paragraph, where he is apparently listed as G. Martial Graves (#24). Could George W. Graves, brother of Martial, be Mike's ancestor?

Peter Graves (8) was born about 1799-1800 in the U.S. (according to the 1851-52 and the 1861 censuses for Elkfrid Twp., Middlesex Co., Ontario, Canada). He was naturalized as a Canadian citizen in 1841, therefore should have immigrated from the U.S. before 1834.

He married Hannah Warren. She was born about 1817-19 in Canada (according to the census records), although some family members say Pontiac, Mich. In the 1871 census for Elkfrid Twp., Middlesex Co., Hannah was listed with children Euphoma and George W., but Peter was not included and had apparently died by that time.

According to the census records, Peter was a shoemaker and a farmer, and they were Baptists.

There was a James Graves living about 5 miles from Peter Graves in the 1851 census whose age and background were similar. James's wife was Mary, born in the U.S. of German ancestry, age 48. Also living with them was a widow Mary Graves, age 84, born in the U.S. (probably his mother?). Both families were Baptist. There is no proof of relationship between James and Peter, but they may have been brothers.

Ms. Joanne Clarida Shroul, 1908 North York St., Independence, MO 64058 (JoClarida@aol.com), wrote:

"My great-grandfather, Thomas Clarida, b. 1842 in Williamson Co., IL, d. 1922 in Bartlesville, OK, was married twice and I've been unable to find any records mentioning his first wife, with whom he had 3 children before she (probably) died around 1870-1874. Thomas Clarida married for the second time in Williamson Co., IL, 30 April 1874 to Mary Elizabeth Burnett. However, I've recently found a funeral home record for the oldest son of the first marriage, James Thomas Clarida, in which the name of James' mother is given as "LIZA GRAVES". Since Thomas Clarida's older brother, William Henry Clarida, married Samantha Graves 10 Jan. 1870 in Union Co., KY, I thought to look at Samantha's sisters first. I wasn't surprised to find "LOUISA CATHERINE GRAVES, b. 1844, died young". Could she be Thomas Clarida's first wife? What is definitely known about her? I found this Graves family on the 1860 Federal census for Sumner Co., TN, and Catherine was listed as age 14, so she didn't die as a child. When did the Graves family move to IL? Does anyone know why Henry Clarida married Samantha Graves in KY? Does anyone have ideas on the identity of "Liza Graves".

The 1860 Sumner Co., TN census referred to above had the head of household with another surname and the following children:
Graves, James, 17

Catherine, 14
Samantha, 12
Edith M., 10
John, 6
Mahala, 5

ED. NOTE: This census record is for the family in genealogy 535, as shown below, submitted by Mrs. Edna Bost, 5604 Victory Dr., Marshall, TX 75672 (bostjtm@internetwork.net). What is the ancestry of James David Graves?

Jesse Cox Graves (1) was born in Sept. 1837 in OH. According to the 1900 Bell Co., TX census, his father was born in NC and his mother in VA. He married Mandy (Amanda?) -----. She was listed with him in the 1880 Bell Co., TX census. She was born about 1848 in AL. Jesse was a farmer, and they were listed in the household of James and Mary C. Craghead in 1880.

Jesse apparently married second Josephine Coward, since she was listed with him in the 1900 census for Bell Co., TX. She was born in 1843.

NORTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Mrs. Judith Kelley, 8 Ashbourne Ct., South Portland, ME 04106 (JHKell@gte.net), is looking for the ancestry of her husband's line descended from WILLIAM GRAVES of Skowhegan, Maine, as summarized below. He is descended through Henry Marcene Graves, #18. It is possible this family is descended from Samuel Graves of Lynn, MA, based mostly on places lived.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM GRAVES AND BETSEY HOLT
OF SKOWHEGAN, SOMERSET CO., ME

GENERATION 1

William Graves (1) was born about 1780 (calculated from his age at death), died 1 Sept. 1843 at age 63, and was buried in Pooler Cem., East Skowhegan, ME. He married Betsey (possibly Holt). She was born about 1783 (calculated from age at death), died 11 Sept. 1850 at age 67, and was also buried in Pooler Cem., East Skowhegan, ME.

It is possible that William Graves is descended from immigrant Samuel Graves of Lynn, MA (gen. 83), mainly based on places where they lived. There is also probably a connection with Betsey E. Graves and Joseph S. Pooler (gen. 409).

Children - Graves

2. Sarah Graves, b.c. 1802, m. (Col.) John Pooler, d. 5 May 1849.
3. Eliza A. Graves, b. 30 June 1809, m. Joseph Patten, Jr., 30 Dec. 1832 (Skowhegan, Somerset Co., ME), d. 23 May 1847 (at age 37 y 10m 23d).
- +4. John D. Graves, b. 5 April 1811, m. Luana Holt, 20 Oct. 1831, d. 4 June 1872.

John D. Graves (4) was born 5 April 1811 (from age at death of 61y 1m 29d) in Maine, died 4 June 1872, and was buried in Sawyer Cem., Plymouth, Penobscot Co., ME. He married Luana (or Lucinda) Holt, daughter of Asa Holt and Peggy Nelson, on 20 Oct. 1831 in Canaan, Somerset Co., ME. Luana was born 28 Sept. 1815 in Maine, died 16 Sept. 1865, and was also buried in Sawyer Cem., Plymouth. Their first child was born in Milburn, Somerset Co., ME, and the next 4 in Canaan, Somerset Co., ME.

GENERATION 3

Henry Franklin Graves (10) was born 24 March 1837 in Canaan, Somerset Co., ME, and died 15 June 1860 in Ellsworth, Hancock Co., ME. He married Hannah Franklin, daughter of Benjamin Franklin Garland and Miriam Townsend, about 1858. She was born 10 July 1840 in Ellsworth, Hancock Co., ME, died 22 Feb. 1924 in Brewer, Penobscot Co., ME, and was buried 24 Feb. 1924 in Oak Hill Cem., Brewer.

There may be a connection with the following family, submitted by Mrs. Bonnie Pooler Elsten, 6272 Vista St., Long Beach, CA 90803 (belsten@earthlink.net). Help would be appreciated.

DESCENDANTS OF BETSEY E. GRAVES
AND JOSEPH S. POOLER OF MAINE

GENERATION 1

Betsey E. Graves (1) was born in 1830 in Maine, and died 12 May 1892 in Skowhegan, Somerset Co., ME. She married Joseph S. Pooler, son of Joseph Pooler and Betsy Heald, on 15 Sept. 1849 in Skowhegan, ME. He was born in 1825 in ME, and died 4 Oct. 1908 in Skowhegan. They were both buried in Pooler Cem., Skowhegan.

- 5. Freddie L. Pooler, b. 1861.
- 6. Willie C. Pooler, b. 1865.

GENERATION 2

Charles Ross Pooler (2) was born in 1858 in Skowhegan, Somerset Co., ME. He married Mary Hannah Baker, daughter of Andrew J. Baker and Frances M. Pray, on 12 Dec. 1878 in Weymouth, Norfolk Co., MA. She was born 8 Aug. 1857, died in 1931, and was buried in Village Cem., all in Weymouth, MA. Mary apparently secondly married Reuben Burrell.

Children - Pooler

- +7. Winfred Jackson Pooler, b. 8 March 1879, m(1) Georgie Isabel Howard, m(2) Gertrude Elizabeth Patterson, d. 5 Dec. 1942.

GENERATION 3

Winfred Jackson Pooler (7) was born 8 March 1879 in Weymouth, Norfolk Co., MA, died 5 Dec. 1942, and was buried in North Weymouth Cem., Weymouth. He first married

Georgie Isabel Howard, daughter of Bradford T. Howard and Annie Maria Lowell. She was born 14 April 1884, died in 1907, and was buried in Village Cem., all in Weymouth. After she died, he married Gertrude Elizabeth Patterson. She was born in 1888. All his children were born in Weymouth.

- 11. Mary Ellen Pooler, b. 1925, m. Evard Lilley. He was b. 1920.

Mrs. Jacqueline Larsen, PO Box 82, Eden, VT 05652 (backbay@pshift.com), wrote: "My gg-grandmother's name was LUCY W. GRAVES, born in Duxbury, VT about 1815. I have no information on her parents, her birth, her death, or any siblings. She married Gabriel Patterson, Jr., who was born in Scotland in 1815. They had 11 children, all born in Glover, VT. Her name was on the vital marriage record for her daughter, Lucinda Margaret Patterson to Edson Kinney."

(ED. NOTE: There was a family of Luther Graves and his children that lived in Duxbury, VT. He was descended from Thomas Graves of Hartford, CT. Perhaps Lucy was related to him.)

Mrs. Janice Gould Johnson, 239 Cherokee Rd., #10, Beaver Dam, WI 53916 (jgould@powerweb.net), is looking for the parents of ASA W. GRAVES, discussed below. Was Asa a descendant of Rear Admiral Thomas Graves of Charlestown, MA and, if so, how? Mrs. Johnson is also interested in the descendants of the children of Asa, especially those of daughter Abby Jane Graves.

She is not a descendant of Asa W. Graves, but is a descendant of George William Gould, 1798-1865, and his wife Hannah Tufts, parents of Lucy T. Gould who married Asa.

GENERATION 1

Asa W. Graves (1) was born in 1820 in Killingly, CT, died 31 March 1904 in Danielson Borough, Killingly, CT, at the age of 84, and was buried in New Westfield Cem., Killingly. He was a gunsmith. He first married Lucy T. Gould, daughter of George William Gould and Hannah Tufts. She was born 16 Nov. 1822 in Pomfret, CT, and died 2 Jan. 1853 in Danielson Borough, Killingly, CT. Her father George was born 1798, died 1865, and was buried in Old Westfield Cem., all in Killingly, CT.

Asa married second Caroline ----- by 1856. They probably had more than the one child listed below.

The 1790 census of Killingly shows a John Graves and an Isachar Graves. It is thought that Asa might have been a son or grandson of one of these. One of the sons of Isachar was Artemus or Artemas Graves, born 20 July 1789, married Betsey -----, but no information on children. Artemas was no. 329 in the Rear Admiral Thomas Graves book, and it appears likely that Asa was descended from Rear Adm. Thomas Graves also.

Children - Graves, by Lucy T. Gould

2. James M. Graves, b. 1843 (Sterling, CT), d. before 1904.
3. George W. Graves, b. 1846, d. 1847.
4. Abby Jane Graves, b. 1850 (Killingly, CT), m. Lafayette Hoyle.

Children - Graves

5. Louella Graves, b. 2 Aug. 1856 (Killingly, CT), d. 7 Oct. 1859 (Killingly, CT).

Mr. Tom Wright, 16 Dogwood Lane, North Attleboro, MA 02760 (tom.wright@themedco.com), is not a Graves descendant but a cousin of the family of JACOB GRAVES discussed below. Can anyone provide information about descendants and ancestors?

GENERATION 1

Jacob Graves (1) married Betsal Dean 3 Nov. 1800 in Norton, Bristol Co., MA. She was born 18 Oct. 1782 in Norton, daughter of Nathan Dean and Ziporah -----.

In trying to find the ancestry of Jacob Graves, no other Graves marriages were found in Wrentham or Norton, and the only ones in Attleboro were Joseph Graves and Cynthia Fuller, both of Attleboro, 12 June 1803, and Lucy Graves (or Grover?) and Daniel Gwello, both of Norton, 28 Oct. 1810.

Children - Graves

- +2. Betsy Dean Graves, b. 19 Nov. 1806, m. Dennis Munroe, 1833.
3. Eliza Bowen Graves, b. 29 Jan. 1815 (Attleboro, MA), m. Williard H. White, 18 June 1834 (Attleboro, MA). He was "of Wrentham, MA". Marriage intentions published 29 March 1834 in Wrentham (Wrentham v.r.).

GENERATION 2

Betsy Dean Graves (2) was born 19 Nov. 1806 in Norton, MA. She married Dennis Munroe "of Wrentham, MA" 28 May 1833 in Attleboro, Bristol Co., MA. Their intentions were published 4 May 1833 in Wrentham (Wrentham v.r.). The 1840 census showed him living in Wrentham, MA.

Children - Munroe

4. Dennis Munroe, b. 1833 (Wrentham, MA).
5. son, b. 21 Dec. 1849 (Attleboro, MA).

SOUTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Mrs. Connie Butterfield, 5602 Kingsway West, Cincinnati, OH 45215, is still looking for proof of the ancestry of her NANCY JANE GRAVES. She believes Nancy is probably a daughter of JAMES DUDLEY GRAVES (as shown below) partly because of name, place and date similarities. In 1860 there were no Graves families in Saline Co., IL except James D. C. Graves and Nancy and her husband James Johnson. The 1850 TN census discussed later is further evidence.

Another descendant of Nancy Jane Graves is Ms. Cathy Palm, 106 East Park Ave., Oscoda, MI 48750 (jpalm@I-star.com).

James Dudley Graves (1) is believed to have been the father of the children listed below. He married Mary Elizabeth Chandler. They lived in Caswell Co., NC, and apparently moved to TN, perhaps in the early 1830's.

He is believed to be a son of Benjamin Franklin Graves and Polly Dudley, descended from Capt. Thomas Graves of VA, but more proof is needed. Reasons for believing that Benjamin Franklin Graves was father of James include his marriage to Polly Dudley, and the fact that her brother, James, was the executor of Benjamin's will. Although James Dudley Graves was not mentioned in Benjamin's will, it was not uncommon for the elder son not to be in the will, since they sometimes received their portion when they married (although the age of James Dudley Graves is not known relative to the children mentioned in the will).

If the preceding speculation is correct, then the descent from immigrant Capt. Thomas Graves of VA is: (1) Thomas, (2) John, (3) Thomas, (4) John, (5) John, b.c. 1685, m. Frances -----, (6) Joseph, b. by 1725, m(2) Frances Coleman, (7) Benjamin Franklin, b. 1773, m(2) Polly Dudley, (8) James Dudley Graves, m. Mary Elizabeth Chandler, (9) James Dudley Chandler Graves.

In addition to the will of Benjamin Franklin Graves not listing the name of Benjamin Dudley Graves, the Bible record of B. F. Graves also supposedly listed six children, but not Benjamin Dudley Graves. There are several possibilities: (1) Benjamin Dudley Graves was not a son of B. F. Graves, (2) Benjamin Dudley Graves was the same as one of the other children who was named, perhaps Ambrose Dudley Graves, or (3) Benjamin Dudley Graves was cut out of the will and estranged from his family. This last possibility is supported by a story from Celeste Graves who wrote that her father-in-law, James W. Graves, remembered his grandfather, James D. C. Graves, but was surprised that he was divorced. He said "he had asked his grandfather several times about his ancestors and he always said he wasn't interested in talking about them." It sounds as if there was some controversy in the family's past.

Children - Graves

- +2. James Dudley Chandler Graves, b. 4 Dec. 1828, m(1) ----- Fox, m(2) Winnie Mariah Kinsolving, 1 Nov. 1869.
3. Josephine ("Josie") Graves, m. ----- Weaver.
4. Nancy Jane Graves, b. 27 March 1838 (TN), m. James Johnson, 1857 (Saline Co., IL). Their daughter, Josephine Johnson, b. 1866 (IL), m. Charles Rice, (Saline Co., IL).

Although James Dudley Graves is believed to probably be a son of Benjamin Franklin Graves, Mrs. Butterfield found one family in the 1850 Tennessee census that could be this family (see next paragraph). Can anyone place this JACOB GRAVES and his family? Could it be that James Dudley Graves had died and his children were living with Jacob Graves (a cousin or uncle?)?

Jacob Graves, 45, b. NC; Nancy, 27, b. TN; James, 22 (J.D.C. would have been 22); Nancy, 16 (Nancy should have been only 12); Thomas, 14; David, 11; Josephine, 10; Andrew, 4; Jenkins Diviney, 22; James, 19; John, 14; Charlotte, 12; Rachael, 9.

The children of Benjamin Franklin Graves and Polly Dudley are given in the Capt. Thomas Graves genealogy as:

- 1804. Ambrose Dudley Graves, b. 1802.
- 1805. Nancy C. Graves, b. 1804.
- 1806. Francis H. Graves, b. 1806.
- 1807. Lucien W. (or Lucian B.) Graves, b. 1808.
- +1808. Elizabeth Mary Graves, b. 16 Sept. 1810, m(1) Alfred William Carr, 1828, m(2) Adam Black Chambers, 28 Oct. 1833, d. 2 Jan. 1886.
- 1809. Marion W. Graves, b. 1812.

GENERATION 2

John Thomas Graves (2) was born 4 March 1834 in VA, possibly in Culpeper Co., died 26 or 27 Dec. 1923 in Houston, Harris Co., TX, and was buried in Berea Cem., Berea Community, Jefferson, Marion Co., TX. He ran away from home when 14 years of age, and went to GA. He later moved to TX, and enlisted in the Confederate Army in TX as a member of Gen. Green's Brigade. He married Julia Arrena Dockery from AL on 16 Nov. 1865 in Washington Co., TX.

John and Julia are listed in the 1880 census for Milam Co., TX with their first 6 children. They are on the 1900 census for Milam Co., TX with 2 of their children and 2 granddaughters and a son-in-law, and next door to the McLaughlins. They are on the 1910 Concho Co., TX census with a nephew and next door to Ola and James (their sons) and families.

Mr. Harvey Wohlwend, 10212 Spicewood Mesa, Austin, TX 78759-6800 (Harvey.Wohlwend@intl.sematech.org), descended from JOHN GREAVES of St. Mary's Co., MD, says the books on the descendants of Pocohontas mention a Colonel RALPH GRAVES who married (about 1827) Virginia B. Robertson (1807-1836), daughter of Archibald Robertson and Elizabeth Meade Bolling (d. 1823). Does anyone know anything about this Ralph Graves and how he is connected to other family members? What specific books are being referred to and what do they say?

Ms. Linda Nicholson, 8 Standwood, San Antonio, TX 78250-6715 (lindanick@email.msn.com), and Mr. Harmon C. Graves, 36157 Jay St., Livonia, MI 48152, are both looking for information on the ancestry of JOHN THOMAS GRAVES of VA and TX. Any help will be appreciated. The information now known is below.

CAPT. THOMAS GRAVES OF VA

Mr. Dave Higgins, 3724 Boardwalk St., Eau Claire, WI 54701 (dhiggins@charter.net), is looking for help in proving the descent of his BARTLETT LANE GRAVES from Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of VA. He has information indicating that Bartlett Lane Graves is descended as shown below.

- +1963. John Leathers Graves, b. 10 April 1807, m(1) Maria W. Graves, 4 Feb. 1836, m(2) Martha Lucas, d. 29 Jan. 1890.
- 1964. Louisa Graves

- +1970. Mary Jane Graves, b. 1829, m. W. A. Williams.
- 1971. Thomas Graves
- 1972. Benjamin Graves
- 1973. William Graves

However, I have no indication that Bartlett O.⁷ Graves had a son named Henry Bartlett Graves, or that William Bartlett⁷ Graves had a daughter named Nancy Graves. The information I have for both of them is below. This is from Mrs. P. W. Hiden, "The Graves Family of Spotsylvania County," Tyler's Quarterly, vol. 19, 1938, pp. 176-185, 242-251. Does anyone have any evidence to support these other children?

Also, it can be seen that the information for the children of Bartlett O. Graves is very incomplete. More complete information and documentation is needed.

Bartlett O. Graves (726) was born 22 Nov. 1766 and died in 1855. He first married Frances Lane, daughter of Henry Lane, on 16 April 1787 in Louisa Co., Va. She died in 1793. He secondly married Kitty Patterson in 1793. She died in 1805. He thirdly married Elizabeth Leathers in 1806. She was born in 1781 and died in 1867. It is not certain which of the following children were by which wife.

Children - Graves

William Bartlett Graves (722) was born 19 Oct. 1755 and died 7 Jan. 1818. He married Ann (or Anne) P. ("Nancy") Pettus (#754), daughter of Col.
