MEMBERSHIP RENEWALS DUE

This is the last issue of the newsletter for 2000. Since all Association memberships and newsletter subscriptions are by calendar year, if you have not already joined for 2001, you should send your renewal now. Renewing now will prevent any delay in receiving your newsletter issues.

If you are not sure of the status of your membership, you can tell by the date at the top of the address label on the newsletter envelope. If it says "Exp. Dec. 2000", that means it is time to renew.

Anyone who wants to renew for more than one year can do so by paying the regular annual rate times the number of years desired. Life membership is now available for a one-time payment of $600. There is no longer any age requirement for this category of membership. Checks should be made payable to Graves Family Association.

NEWSLETTER INDEXING

The indexing of the newsletter this year has again been done by Mrs. Dixie M. Hickey, 8207 Rockbrook Ct., Fort Wayne, IN 46825-7109, hickfw@cris.com, descended from Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of VA. Her help is very much appreciated. Many other opportunities to help are listed on the Graves Family Association website (<http://www.gravesfa.org>).

CORRECTION TO OCTOBER NEWSLETTER

The page numbers in the October issue of the newsletter were accidentally made the same as those in the August issue. Instead of 73-96, the page numbers should have been 97-120. The index in this issue shows all names on the correct page numbers, rather than on the page numbers that were accidentally printed.

GRAVES FAMILY BOOKS

At last! The price and delivery of the John Graves of Concord, MA book can be announced. It will be ready to be mailed in May 2001. The book will be hardcover, 2 volumes, more than 1600 pages, fully indexed, and will contain many pictures of family members. The price will be $65 postpaid for orders received by April 15, 2001, and $75 after that.

The book on Graves Families of Randolph Co., NC is being worked on now and is

GRAVES FAMILY ASSOCIATION ACTIVITIES

Research on family descendants and ancestry is continuing, with many discoveries being made. If you have not yet been successful, consult experts, search original documents, and don't give up.

The Graves Family Association web site at <http://www.gravesfa.org> is continuing to expand. Existing genealogies are constantly being revised, some are being added to other genealogies as connections are found, and new information and pages are being added to the site, as time and assistance permit.

If you have an e-mail address but haven't told us what it is, please do. None of the free, online Graves Family Bulletins were sent in 2000, but they will soon be resumed.

DNA analysis of the Y chromosome and of mitochondrial DNA now allows the tracing of direct male and direct female ancestry. This means that if you or a relative are surnamed Graves, Greaves, or a variation of that, it is now possible to determine whether you are descended from the same ancestor as another person who is tested. You will soon be receiving an invitation to participate in a study to find the connections between the various families of Graves, Greaves, etc.

GRAVES FAMILY NEWS

Mrs. Esther ("Betty") Nielsen, Trinity Community, 3218 Indian Pipe Road, Dayton, OH 45440, was recently the recipient of a surprise luncheon and birthday party for her 90th birthday on Oct. 30, 2000. The party was held at the home of her son Robert Nielsen on Sunday, Sept. 3, 2000 (Labor Day weekend) in Xenia, OH. Betty is descended from THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT & Hatfield, MA.

The Boston Globe, Sunday, Dec. 3, 2000, p. A23, contained the following article about architect Michael Graves. We would like to know his ancestry.

Architect Michael Graves honored
By Benjamin Forgey, Washington Post

Washington - Michael Graves, the architect who helped transform America's taste with his idiosyncratic, history-quoting designs, has been selected to receive the 2001 Gold Medal of the American Institute of Architects.

The medal will be presented in Washington on Feb. 16. Graves, 66, joins such luminaries as Louis Sullivan, Frank Lloyd Wright, Le Corbusier, and I. M. Pei, who are among the 58 winners of the 93-year-old award.

"This honor is both gratifying and humbling," Graves said from his office in Princeton, N.J., "because it is given to you by your peers, by people who do the same thing that you do every day."

In his designs of everything from office towers to toasters and teakettles, Graves wittily reintroduced consciousness of design history to the American public and fellow architects.

His sense of fun and form was dramatically demonstrated in the fabric sheathing he designed to decorate the scaffolding that surrounded the Washington Monument during its repair.

Tracing a grid pattern around the tall obelisk, like a stack of huge bricks, Graves's design was an immensely popular temporary addition to the Washington skyline. It came down early this year after a 12-month stay.

Graves first came to national attention with his design of the Municipal Building in Portland, Ore., completed in 1982.

His better-known works include the San Juan Capistrano Library in California, completed in 1983.

Mr. John Blair (jblair@scattercreek.com) sent the following obituary that a long-dead aunt of his saved. Can anyone identify this family?

"DIED - In Lewiston, Idaho, April 6, 1889,
Wesley Graves, an Oregon pioneer, aged 71 years, 5 months and 23 days.

Wesley Graves was born on October 14, 1817 and died at the residence of his son-in-law, C.C. Bunnell, Esq. in the city of Lewiston on April 6, 1889. His life and character are worthy of precious memory. In 1840 he was married to Miss Rebecca Shumaker, and leaves his widow and two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Sprenger and Mrs. C.C. Bunnell, and a number of grandchildren to mourn his loss. In 1852 Mr. Graves crossed the plains and settled with his family at Corvallis, Oregon, where he engaged in the business of keeping hotel. At various times he was the proprietor of the Union Hotel, the Opera House, or Commercial, and for a term of years was well-known as the popular landlord of the famous Chemeketa Hotel. In September, 1886 he removed to Lewiston and has since made his home in this city with his son-in-law, Mr. Bunnell. For some time he had been in feeble health and during the six weeks previous to his death was an intense sufferer. Sustained and comforted by all that loving hands and affectionate children and friends could do, he bore his affliction with patience and fortitude, "and was gathered unto his people, being full of days and honor". Mr. Graves was a communicant of the Methodist Episcopal church and left ample testimony that he was at peace with God. he told his friends not to grieve for him; that he was prepared to die. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father; a staunch friend; generous and hospitable at his home; liberal to the needy; kind and sympathetic to the afflicted, and wherever in his neighborhood a good work was to be performed, there he was found a ready and zealous laborer. As a citizen he was eminent for patriotism; stable and conservative in his political opinions, and a warm supporter of all proper enterprises fraught with good in the public. Consistent as a Christian, he performed the duties and bore the burdens of the church, with zeal and humility, and in all the relations of life he exhibited the character of an exemplary citizen. May his precious memory and the example and influence of his life be blessed to the good of the community. A FRIEND."

QUESTIONS AND INFORMATION

NORTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Kathy Cardoza, 5607 Green Mt. Rd., Woodland, WA 98674 (kcardoz @pacifier.com), is not a Graves descendant, but she is looking for information and/or descendants of HIRAM D. GRAVES, born 24 Jan. 1866 in Havana, Schuyler Co., NY, and died 27 Jan. 1947 in Sacramento, CA. He was an electrician by trade. The name of his first wife is not known, but children of that marriage (as of 1947) were a son, C. E. Graves of Washington, DC, and a daughter, Nellie Hicreth (possibly incorrect spelling) of Rochester, NY. His second wife was Della Winger Brownewell, married before 1917 in CA, possibly Solano Co. No children by that marriage.

(ED. NOTE: In addition to trying to find the known children and their families, I suggest looking at the state and federal census records. The New York State censuses of 1875 and 1885, and the federal censuses of 1870 and 1880, might all list Hiram as a child in the household of his parents. Havana is now known as Alpine)

SOUTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Darla L. Dunkin-Ushler, 6202 96th St. NE, Marysville, WA 98270 (lilac4me @aol.com), is looking for more information about her Greaves family and the earlier ancestry. The first 3 known generations are below.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM T. GREAVES AND LYDIA HARRISON OF KY & TX

GENERATION 1

William T. ("Will") Greaves (1) was born in KY, and died 5 March 1912 in McLennan Co., TX (death certificate 8105). He married Lydia Harrison. She was born about 1876 in LA, and died 5 Aug. 1923 in Dallas Co., TX.

Her obituary was in the Dallas Daily Times Herald, Monday, Aug. 16, 1923, p. 8, col. 3. "Mrs. Lydia Greaves, a resident of Dallas for fourteen years, died Sunday night in her home, 913 Bellevue Avenue. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Lou Fletcher, and two sons, W.F. and S.P. Greaves, all of Dallas; two sisters, Mrs. Mamie Clark of Dallas and Mrs. J.B. Palmer of Graham, Texas, and three brothers, Henry, Charles, and Alfred Harrison, all of Dallas. Following short funeral services Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence, the body will be sent by the Weiland Undertaking Company to Waco for burial."

- 3. William F. Graves, b.c. 1896.

GENERATION 2

Shelton Paul Greaves (2) was born 14 Aug. 1893 in TX, and died 28 Jan. 1946 in Dallas Co., TX (death certificate 1470). He first married Madeline Sophroney Knight, daughter of Doc (or Dock) Knight and Nicey Tucker, on 8 Aug. 1911 in Dallas, Dallas Co., TX. She was born 6 Jan. 1899 in Dallas, TX, and died 8 Aug. 1989 in Bronson, TX. He married second Trionia -----. She was born about 1898 in TX.

On Shelton's draft registration his name is listed as Shelton Pamprea Greaves. It seems very likely that he changed his middle name to Paul after researching the name Pamprea and finding that the closest to that is the French spelling for Paul. (R-1)

- 3427. Benjamin F. Graves, married. No children.

GENERATION 9

James Edgar (or Ervin?) Graves (3426) was born 18 July 1833 in KY, and died 9 June 1913. He left Nelson Co., KY and, while visiting relatives in Missouri, joined the Confederate Army. He served under Generals Shelby, Marmaduke, and Captain Jepata, enlisting on Jan. 6, 1861 and serving until May 8, 1864 (Missouri Infantry, Company B, State Guard). He was a wagonmaster. He was captured when ordered to dump the wagons in the river, while his comrades were retreating. He was taken to Gratiot Prison where he was exchanged for Union soldiers. He fought in the war until the south surrendered, and was released from active duty in Meridian, MS.

James soon founded a household not far from where he was released, in Newton Co., MS, near Decatur, possibly in Carriet Mills. James first married Martha C. Johnson about

GENERATION 8

Thomas Sims Graves (1762) was born 13 (or 3) July 1794 in Culpeper Co., Va., and died 6 May 1859 in Nelson Co., Ky. He moved

1870. They were listed in the 1870 census for Newton Co., MS. It is believed by the family that she died in childbirth or complications thereof. He married second Elizabeth B. ("Lizzie") Laird (from a nearby farm) on 23 Oct. 1875. She was born about 1845. Her parents were Elim Laird (b.c. 1820 in GA) and Sarah ----- (b.c. 1821 in GA). The following children are listed in the 1880 census for Newton Co., MS. Claude and several others of the children moved to Claiborne Parish, LA. All the family members were buried in Weldon Cem., Union Parish, LA, near Bernice, LA. James was listed in the 1900 federal census of Jones Co., MS, with his name listed as George (can we be positive that this is not someone else?). He was listed in the 1910 census of Laurel, Jones Co., MS with his wife Elizabeth Laird and his youngest son Avery Graves. According to a Confederate Grave Registration completed by his daughter Bessie, he was born July 18, 1833 and died

June 9, 1913. Ten of the 14 children of James Graves lived to adulthood.
