REPORT OF THE GRAVES-BEWLEY REUNION IN SHERIDAN, OREGON

The annual Graves-Bewley family reunion was held July 31, 1994 at the Sheridan city park, Sheridan, OR. This reunion was for descendants of Col. James B. Graves (descended from Capt. Thomas Graves of VA) and Diana Newton, as well as other Oregon pioneers of 1847. It was a beautiful summer day. Therefore, we had a respectable number who gathered for the occasion, some members arriving from Louisiana and Texas, as well as those from the nearer states like California and Washington. Ruth Horley, our business manager, presided over the meeting.

There was a "saddleback count" of about 54 people who enjoyed the covered dish supper. Our numbers are growing with each gathering of the clan.

Two new grave sites were discovered this year in the foothills above Sheridan. It is believed the graves were connected to the first Graves family that settled in western Oregon.

Submitted by: Mr. Harold C. Graves, 2306 Judy St., Amarillo, TX 79106.

USING GENEALOGY FOR MEDICAL AND OTHER PURPOSES

Mr. Kenneth B. Graves, Jr., 1027 Elliott Ave., Petersburg, VA 23805, asked whether anyone is compiling records to show cause of death, such as cancer, and race, such as Indian. "I know that several branches of my family are mixed with Indian, but I do not know which tribe or when. The value of that info would be to trace the ethnic heritage and to know what health problems to expect, such as glucose intolerance, susceptibility to TB, Rh factor problems in pregnancy, different reactions to drugs and alcohol, etc."

Other members have indicated an interest in this, especially in the medical aspects. Would anyone like to pursue this in more depth?

JOHN GRAVES SIMCOE, LT. COL. IN VA AND LT. GOVERNOR OF UPPER CANADA

Mr. Kenneth B. Graves, Jr. also sent an article that appeared in the Newport News, VA Daily Press, Sunday, Aug. 23, 1992, summarized below.

"Man who burned Richmond

They are celebrating in Canada during August and September the life and accomplishments of the man who burned Richmond and terrorized the Peninsula in 1781.

This month, 500 miles north of the York River from which he sailed after the surrender at Yorktown, Canadians are commemorating the arrival of their first Lieutenant Governor in Upper Canada: John Graves Simcoe.

In Virginia we knew him as Lt. Col. Simcoe, commander of the Queens Rangers, the most audacious British officer we faced, the unpredictable and brilliant light infantry commander who moved his foot soldiers like cavalry and so harassed central Virginia and the Peninsula that no one felt safe day or night...

Despite that fearful reputation here, more than any other man, John Graves Simcoe was responsible for establishing a benevolent British rule that formed the basis for Canada's self-governing Confederation and eventual independence from Britain...."

TRIP TO ENGLAND IN MAY 1995

This trip will be May 20 through June 1, 1995. A mailing was sent in September to all Graves Family Association members, giving details of the tour. Others should contact Kenneth V. Graves, 261 South St., Wrentham, MA 02093, (508)384-8084, for information.

The itinerary will include ancient Graves family homes such as Beeley in Derbyshire and Mickleton in Gloucester, tourist attractions such as Windsor Castle, Buckingham Palace, and Shakespeare locations, and visits in the homes of Graves family members in England. Although there will be opportunity for genealogical research for those who are interested, this will also be a trip to enjoy and remember for everyone.

A video of the tour will be made and will be available afterward to all who are interested.

QUESTIONS AND INFORMATION

MISCELLANEOUS GRAVES FAMILIES

Mr. Howard Graves, 8122 West Flamingo Rd., #142, Las Vegas, NV 89117-4212, is very anxious to find his earlier Graves ancestry. His father was HOWARD STEVEN GRAVES, and he supposedly died when Howard was about 15 months old, in 1929. Although he may have died in Michigan, he also may have died in Canada in some TB sanitarium. His mother's maiden name was Frances L. Beckwith, and she recently died without passing on any information.

The birth certificate of Howard Graves indicates that his father was born in St. Louis, MO, but the date is unknown. Howard Steven Graves was employed by American-LaFrance Foamite Corp before he died. He worked in Detroit and Kalamazoo, MI, and perhaps in Grand Rapids. Figgie International is the successor to American-LaFrance, but he has not been able to get a response from anyone there as to whether personnel records from the 1920's are still in existence.

Any help would be much appreciated.

GRAVES FAMILIES OF ENGLAND

Mr. John F. Cooper, 1 Bulls Cliff, Garfield Rd., Felixstowe, Suffolk IP11 7PU, England, is descended from James William Graves and Mary Ann Pettigrew, as summarized below. He says that because it is much more difficult to trace ancestors who lived in cities than those who lived in rural areas, he has not been able to trace further back than James William Graves. He would appreciate help.

(ED. NOTE: Is it possible that this family could have been connected with that of Rear Adm. Thomas Graves of Charlestown, MA, since both families lived in Stepney?)

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN GRAVES AND ELIZABETH COLE OF LANCASHIRE & WESTMORLAND, ENGLAND

GENERATION 1

John Graves (1) was born about 1807 and died 29 Jan. 1867. The census for Underbarrow, Westmorland Co., England gives his birthplace as Ulverston or Osmotherly (a place near Ulverston), Lancashire. His stated age in the 1861 census for Underbarrow is 53, making his birth year around 1807-08. A search of the baptismal records for Ulverston has found no likely entries for John.

He married Elizabeth Cole, daughter of Arthur and Mary Cowill. She was baptized 7 Feb. 1813 at Broughton-in-Furness, and died 15 Jan. 1879.

John Graves obtained his BA at St. Bees Theological College. He became vicar of Underbarrow in 1839 and officiated at his first baptism there on 10 March 1839. According to the Westmorland Directory, 1858, p. 28, the living is a perpetual curacy worth £90pa, with residence, in the gift of the vicar of Kendal.

Behind the alter in Underbarrow Church there is a stained glass window dedicated to John Graves. "In affectionate remembrance of the Rev. John Graves for 28 years curate of this parish who died on 29 Jan. 1867, aged 59. This window was inserted by his friends and parishoners AD1869." He was buried in the Churchyard. All his children were baptized in his church.

GENERATION 2

Ferdinando Cole Graves (7) was born and baptized 19 July 1853 in Underbarrow, Westmorland Co., England, and died in July 1925. He was a twin of his sister Dora. He married Constance Edith Ainslie on 7 Jan. 1891. She was born 18 Jan. 1853 and died 20 Nov. 1934. He obtained an MA at Oxford and became headmaster of a school in Chichester, probably Chichester Grammar School. He was a keen sportsman and fond of cricket.

Children - Graves

10. Constance Ainslie Graves, b. 26 Aug. 1897, m. Edmund George Law, 23 Sept. 1922, d. 6 Oct. 1981.

GENERATION 3

Constance Ainslie Graves (10) was born 26 Aug. 1897 and died 6 Oct. 1981. She married

Children - Taylor

14. Clare Louisa Taylor, b. 24 Jan. 1982.

Catherine Clare Taylor (13) was born 27 Aug. 1954. She married Olaf Georg Willi Sroka on 16 Sept. 1985. He was born 28 Nov. 1945.

Children - Sroka

15. Anne Clare Sroka, b. 22 Nov. 1987.
16. Richard Olaf Sroka, b. 25 June 1989.

Mr. Alfred William West, "Northangle" M.S. 5, Dubbo, 2830, New South Wales, Australia, has submitted more information to add to his query on p. 34, 1994 GFNL. He is looking for the ancestry of his g-g-grandmother MARY ANN GREAVES.

According to the 1851 Manchester census, Mary Ann (wife of Timothy Leary), age 35 years, born Middlesex. Address: 1, Peel Terrace, Rochdale Rd., Manchester. Her husband was Timothy Leary, 42 year of age, born Ireland. Mary Ann does not appear with her husband and family in the 1861 census, address Livesey Street Police Station, Manchester, when Timothy Leary was described as 52 years, born Shandon (?), County of Cork.

The children of Timothy and Mary Ann, based on the 1851 and 1861 censuses, were the last 6 born in Manchester):

- John James, b.c. 1837, Middlesex
- Cornelius (or Edwin Cornelius), b.c. 1839, either in Ireland or Manchester
- Henry, b.c. 1841
- Alfred, b.c. 1844
- George Samuel, b. 4 Jan. 1846
- Elizabeth, b.c. 1849
- Edward, b.c. 1850-51
- Caroline, b.c. 1852

It is possible that Mary Ann Greaves was the child baptized 10 June 1816 at Middlesex, Hammersmith, Waterloo St., (Wesleyan) to John Greaves and his wife Mary, but this has not yet been proven.

Mr. West is descended through the second son Cornelius Leary, known in Australia as Edwin Cornelius. Timothy Leary rose to the position of Inspector in the Manchester Police Force. Inspector Leary resigned owing to ill health with last day of service 31 July 1863. The death dates of both Timothy Leary and his wife Mary Ann are unknown.

THOMAS GRAVES OF DE, QUAKER

Ms. Susan E. Graves and Ms. Misty L. Graves, 1246 South Gold Dust Terrace, Inverness, FL 34452, are descended from the Quaker family of THOMAS GRAVES of DE. They would like to learn more about their part of the family.

Their line of descent is: Thomas¹, Thomas² m. Ann Barber, Thomas³ m. Rebekah -----, Thomas⁴ m. Martha Dixon, Samuel⁵ m. Barbara Henson, Martha⁶, m. Thomas⁶ Graves (son of Polly⁵), Samuel⁷ m. Elizabeth Ankrom, George Albert⁸ m. Sara Ann Heskitt, Clarence Cleveland⁹ m. Flora Mae Monroe, Clarence¹⁰ m. Vera May Speakman, Susan Elaine¹¹, Misty Lynnette¹² Graves.

NORTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Nancy M. Jaeger, 113 Reddington Court, Camarillo, CA 93010, wrote that her “maternal grandfather was Clarence Desmond Graves, born 16 Sept. 1881 in (Rice), Morristown Twp., MN. His birth certificate lists his father as WILLARD GRAVES, born in MA, his occupation was a farmer. That is all the information I have about Willard. I have not been able to find him on a census, or any record of his death. Since I have no idea how old he was at his son’s birth, or at his marriage which took place 18 July 1880 at U.B. Church in (Rice), MN, I do not know when or where he was born in MA.”

The wife of Willard Graves, “Anne (Luker) Graves, and two children, were living with her parents in LeSueur Co., MN at the time of the 1900 census. Anne is listed as either widowed or divorced, it is difficult to read the writing in that column.” Anne was born 20 March 1864.

Willard had at least one other child, Alice E. Graves, born June 1884, married J. F. Toller.

(ED. NOTE: Willard Graves should appear at least on the 1880 and 1870 censuses, and probably on the 1860 census, but he would have appeared in the family of his parents in all those years. To get a clue for which Willard Graves to look for, I would try to locate a death record or newspaper obituary for him to learn his age. I would also look for a will/probate record for Willard, and any land records that might involve him or his son.

Were there any other Graves families in the 1880 census for MN that might have been related? Is there a MN county history book that might have included a profile of anyone in this family?)

Ms. Holly Key Graves, 354 Country Club Rd., Holland, MI 49423, is looking for the ancestry of HIRAM S. GRAVES, b. 15 June 1815, d. 23 April 1894 in Beaver City, NE, married Louisa Sage. She was born 1 March 1819 and was apparently christened 26 May 1889.

Their children were: (1) McKendry Graves, b.c. 1843; (2) Lorraine Graves, died young; (3) John Sage Graves, b. 28 May 1854, Jeningsville, Wyoming Co., PA, d. 23 Aug. 1936, Rogers, AR, m. Mary Eloisse Champion, b. 1 Dec. 1854, Wyoming Co., PA, d. 7 Sept. 1918; (4) M. C. Graves, b. 8 Dec. 1840.

Mrs. Teresa Graves Norman, 12919 Fargo Lane, Redding, CA 96003, and Ms. Kelly Diane Graves, 1164 Routes 5 and 20, Waterloo, NY 13165, are both descended from SAMUEL W. GRAVES, whose partial genealogy follows. They would like to learn more about the family and the earlier ancestry.

GENERATION 1

Samuel W. Graves (1) was born in 1832 in NY state. He married Sarah Urich, daughter of Jonas Urich and Polly Troop.

Children - Graves

2. William S. Graves, b. 1861, m. Nellie Jessie Handy, d. 1941.

GENERATION 2

William S. (Samuel?) Graves (2) was born in 1861 in IA, and died in 1941 in OK. He married Nellie Jessie Handy, daughter of Floyd Handy and Mary Hall. Nellie was born at Whitewater, WI. Nellie's family lived in WI during the time of the Blackhawk (Indian) Wars.

Either William or his father Samuel died of a farming accident with a horsedrawn threshing machine. (You can see what these threshers looked like in photos at Perkos' Cafe, by the river in Red Bluff — huge machines drawn by a great bunch of horses.)

Children - Graves

3. Paul William Graves, b. 1891, m. Georgia Mae Buttram, d. 1932.

GENERATION 3

Paul William Graves (3) was born in 1891 in Britt, IA, and died in 1932 in Ames, IA, during the great depression. He married Georgia Mae Buttram. She was born about 1897 in Saline Co., MO.

Louella Lee Sims and John Thomas Buttram were the parents of Georgia Mae Buttram. There were 10 or 12 children, one of whom was supposedly the mother of James Garner, actor. The name of John Thomas Buttram's father is not known, but the family was living in Marshfield, MO when he was born about 1863. He died in 1926.

Dr. Lu Ann W. Darling, 11414 Albata St., Los Angeles, CA 90049, is searching for some of her husband's ancestry. He had 2 Graves lines. One is from Hannah Sackett, daughter of William Sackett and HANNAH GRAVES. (ED. NOTE: This Hannah Graves is a granddaughter of THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT, through his son Isaac.)

The second line is from DIANTHA M. GRAVES, b. 13 Aug. 1811 in Cortland Co., NY, d. 7 April 1879 in Leon, Cattaraugus Co., NY. She married Timothy Darling, son of Alden Darling and Hannah Church, on 9 Aug. 1827 in Phelps, NY.

(ED. NOTE: Both Deacon George Graves and John Graves of Concord had descendants who lived in Cortland Co., NY.)

Mr. Harlan L. Rounds, 5453 Konnowac Pass Rd., Wapato, WA 98951, has Graves ancestry on both his mother's and father's side. One line is from SAMUEL GRAVES, b. 1717-18, CT, m. Phoebe Hull. He is descended through their daughter, Hannah Graves, b. 14 Dec. 1752, Plattsburg, NY, m. John Rhodes, and through their child, Hezekiah Rhodes, b. 27 Feb. 1775, Tyringham, MA. He is looking for the ancestry of Samuel Graves.

His other line is from NEHEMIAH (?) JOHN (?) GRAVES, b. 1817 in TN or IN, m. Lucretia Black, 1834-35, through their daughter, Amanda E. Graves, b. 5 Dec. 1840, who m. Henry Asa Herring, 1857, Nodaway Co., MO.

(ED. NOTE: I don't know the ancestry of Samuel Graves who married Phoebe Hull.

However, the other line is descended from immigrant THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT, probably through Stephen⁶ Graves, #499 in the book, Silas⁷ Graves, John⁸ Graves, m. Elizabeth Ann Ballinger, Amanda E.⁹ Graves. It is not definite yet that Silas⁷ was a son of Stephen⁶. This part of the family is also included in Branching Out from Stephen Graves, by Jessie Graves.

Other marriages between the Graves and Black families in Sumner Co., TN in this time period were probably not connected, since that Graves family was from Caswell Co., NC.)

Ms. Betty LeBlanc, 8108 Moss Lane, Orange, TX 77632, is looking for the ancestry of JAMES M. GRAVES, b.c. 1832, TN, who had daughter Lovinia Buchenon Graves, b. 14 June 1870, Abbott, Scott Co., AR, m. James Hillard Fox.

(ED. NOTE: This family is similar to that in the preceding query, also descended from THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT, via Stephen⁶ Graves, #499. Louvinia is shown as #4959 in the book.)

JOHN GRAVES OF CONCORD, MA

Mrs. Vivian Sheridan, 99 Oak Lane, Wirtz, VA 24184-2039, wrote that her grandmother was Susan Dianthias Graves who married John Aylworth. Susan had a sister Emma. It is said that their parents moved to Blendon township, Ottawa Co., MI from NY.

Susan and John had a large family. Their youngest son, Julius Aylworth, was her father.

(ED. NOTE: Susan was descended from JOHN GRAVES of Concord, MA, as follows: John¹, Benjamin², Benjamin³, Jonathan⁴, Jonathan⁵, Roswell⁶, William Gage⁷, Susan⁸.)

SAMUEL GRAVES OF LYNN, MA

Ms. Eleanor G. Baldic, 61 Mariners Lane, Falmouth, MA 02540, wrote: "Would you have any information on an EBENEZER GRAVES who married in Boston, MA on Oct. 1, 1741 to Sarah Lovis, daughter of Thomas Lovis and Sarah.

A genealogy on the Lovis family is currently being compiled and any information you might have would be most appreciated."

(ED. NOTE: This Ebenezer Graves is apparently descended from immigrant Samuel Graves of Lynn. However, the exact relationship is uncertain. On p. 19 of the Samuel Graves book is a statement that this Ebenezer was probably a son of Thomas Graves, #25, descended as follows: Samuel¹, Mark², Thomas³, Ebenezer⁴. However, the book does not show Ebenezer⁴ and his supposed brother John⁴ as sons of Thomas³. Can anyone help?)
