GRAVES FAMILY NEWS

Dr. Wallace Joseph Graves, 3802 Lucena Ct., Grand Prairie, TX 75052-6615, has sent the sad news of the death of his father Wallace DeWitt Graves, born 30 Dec. 1928 and died 10 Oct. 1996, both in Fort Worth, TX. Services were Oct. 14, 1996 in Blessing Colonial Chapel, Mansfield, TX, and interment was private.

Mrs. Larry Spurgin, 3470 Carlsbad Blvd., Carlsbad, CA 92008-3225, sent the sad news that her mother, Fannie Dozier, following a series of small strokes, died on 17 June 1996 at Lake Forest, CA, at age 94. Her birth date was 12 Aug. 1901. She had been married to Robert Dozier almost 72 years (1 Aug. 1924). He survives her and is in good health. He is listed as #1641 in the Rear Adm. Thomas Graves book.

We were very sorry to hear from his wife, Mrs. Frank Graves, 3628 Wentwood Dr., Dallas, TX 75225, of the death of Col. Frank N. Graves on July 26, 1996.

Our thoughts and prayers are with W. McKaig ("Mac") Lovell and his wife Nancy Anne Lovell, 11807 204th Ave. SE, Issaquah, WA 98027-8532. He is terminally ill with cancer. She is a descendant of Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of VA, and they were both on the 1995 GFA trip to England.

FRANCIS GRAVES, SON OF CAPT. THOMAS GRAVES OF VA

Ann Graves, daughter of Capt. Thomas Graves, born 1620, married successively three ministers of Hungars Parish, Accawmack. She married (1), before 10 Jul 1637, the Rev. William Cotton, who on that date patented land in right of his wife Ann Graves (22 above). He left will, Aug 1640-29 Dec 1646, naming "Brethrin-in-Lawe Capt. William Stone and Capt. William Roper as overseers". She married (2), by 1642, the Rev. Nathaniel Eaton. She married (3), as his (2) wife, the Rev. Francis Doughty. She died in Charles Co., MD, will, 26 Dec 1682-18 Jul 1683 (24 above and APP327-30).

Verlinda Graves, daughter of Capt. Thomas Graves, married, before 1640, Capt. William Stone. He moved to MD and in Aug 1648 was commissioned Lieutenant Governor of that colony. She died in MD, will, 3 Mar 1674/5-13 Jul 1675 (Ibid).

Katherine Graves, daughter of Capt. Thomas Graves, married, before 1640, (1) Capt. William Roper and (2) Lt. Thomas Sprigg. She died before 1 Sep 1668 (Ibid).

Francis Graves, youngest child of Capt. Thomas Graves, probably was born about 1630. Since he did not come on the ship with his brothers, he probably was born in VA. He married, by 28 Nov 1678, Jane _____, a widow with three children by a previous marriage or marriages. He died in Essex Co. by 1691 (APP330 & 16W[2]650).

Rev. William Cotton married the sister Ann whom he transported to VA with himself (22 above). Francis Graves' other two sisters Verlinda and Katherine also did not come on the ship with his brothers which suggests that they, too, probably were born in VA.

Capt. Thomas Graves probably was unmarried when he first arrived in VA in 1608. He probably was married, and his sons John and Thomas and his daughter Ann probably were born, during one or more of the several trips that he apparently made back to England. Since he survived the "Starving Time" in the winter of 1609/10 when nearly nine of every ten settlers died [Dabney18], he probably was in England at that time. He may have returned to England in 1609 on the same ship with Capt. John Smith.

We have no further record of him until 1618 (3 above) so that he may have been in England for part or for all of the period of from 1609 to 1618.

He may have been holding some public office and/or been engaged in business in Ireland in 1622 [5 above].

It appears that he did not bring his wife and two sons to VA until after 1623 because in 1623 he was living alone at the Eastern Shore (6 above).

He died in Northampton Co. between 28 Nov 1635 (17 above) and 5 Jan 1636/6 (18 above).

It is evident from 24 above that both a John Graves and a Thomas Graves had died by 30 Apr 1640 and that the three sons-in-law of Capt. Thomas Graves were the administrators of the estates of both the John Graves and the Thomas Graves. The deceased John Graves clearly was the eldest son of Capt. Thomas Graves. Published sources seem unanimously to accept the deceased Thomas Graves as Capt. Thomas Graves, and to identify the Thomas Graves, Junr. of 22 above as the Tho. Graves, Senr. of 37 above.

The hypothesis can be advanced, however, that the deceased Thomas Graves of 24 above was Thomas Graves, Jr., son of Capt Thomas Graves. Sons John and Thomas, Jr. of Capt. Thomas Graves are believed to have been born in England and to have been brought to VA by their father by 9 Aug 1637 when the eldest son John patented land in Elizabeth City Co. (22 above). He owned land and was living in that county as early as 12 Oct 1635 (1C&P32,43). He probably was at least 21 years old in 1635 so that he was born not later than about 1614. We have no record that any Thomas Graves patented any land in the interval of some 21 years between the death of Capt. Thomas Graves in 1635 and the patent of 2 Mar 1656 (37 above). We can't pinpoint the birth date of Thomas Graves, Jr., but it is reasonable to expect that he was born by about 1619 so that he would have been at least about 37 years old in 1656. That was rather old for a man to begin to patent land in those days. This suggests that the Thomas Graves who began patenting land in 1656 may not have been son of Capt. Thomas Graves. He may have been the Tho. Graves that was imported by Stephen Gill in 1651 (Greer134). Or he may have been son of The Rich. Graves that was imported by Robert Pitts in 1637 or the Richard Graves that was imported by John Neale also in 1637 (Ibid).

We know from 24 above that William Parry (Perry) had taken over the administration of the estates of the John Graves and Thomas Graves by 1640. It was his job under the laws of primogeniture then prevailing to assign all of the land in each estate to the eldest surviving son. If the Thomas Graves mentioned in 24 above was Capt. Thomas Graves, then the land should have devolved to his son John Graves. The son John Graves was, however, then deceased so the land should have devolved instead to the then eldest surviving son Thomas Graves, Jr. If the son Thomas Graves, Jr. was also deceased by then as hypothesized above, then the land should have devolved to the son Francis Graves, who would then have been the eldest surviving son.

The land of 23 above obviously had devolved to Francis Graves before his three brothers-in-law had relinquished the administration of the estates of John and Thomas Graves to William Perry. The record does not tell us definitely who the administrator(s) of Capt. Thomas Graves were who assigned this land to Francis Graves. The same rules of primogeniture discussed in the preceding paragraph should still apply, however, in that situation.

If the Francis Graves of 25 above was female as hypothesized by Mrs. Jones, then the land should have devolved under the primogeniture laws to Ann (Graves) Cotton, the apparently eldest surviving daughter, and not to Frances Graves, the apparently youngest surviving daughter.

Francis Graves apparently continued to live in Northampton Co. following his father's death until about 1642 according to 23 and 25 above. His mother apparently died or remarried soon after 20 May 1636 (19 above) since her name did not appear in Northampton Co. records after that date.

It appears from 23 above that Henry Pedenden assumed the guardianship of Francis Graves during the period of from 1636 to 1638 soon after his father [and mother?] had died, when Francis was only about six to eight years old.

Winthrop, as cited by Mrs. P. W. Hiden in 28 above, suggested that misfortune was befalling the family of Capt. Thomas Graves when he died. As a consequence, Francis Graves' guardian Henry Pedenden may have had to sell anything that Francis owned of value including the parcel of land of 23 above, and any rights that Francis may have had to the land applicable to 5 above or to the 200 acres of 10 above, to support Francis during his minority, so that he would not become a ward of the State.

It is not clear from the record why Henry Pedenden was selected as guardian of Francis Graves in 1636/1638. His three sisters apparently were then married and still living in Northampton Co. Each sister moved eventually to MD where each one died (APP328-330). His brother John was living in Elizabeth City Co. (1C&P32,38,43). We don't know where his brother Thomas, if he was still alive, was then living; a Thomas Graves was living in Gloucester Co. by 1657 (1C&P358). It is probable that neither of the brothers John or Thomas was still living in Northampton Co. Supposedly, none of his siblings or their spouses wanted to take on the responsibility of caring for an infant brother [or sister]. That the administration of the above-mentioned estates was turned over to William Perry in 1640 tends to support this supposition.

"Neither of the Graves sons remained here to claim the land and in this year a patent for it was granted to George Truhett." (Whitelaw 140 & 30 above). The death of Thomas Graves, Jr. by 1640 as hypothesized above would support this statement and the statement by Winthrop that misfortune was befalling the family of Capt. Thomas Graves.

The 100 acres of land that were due Capt. Thomas Graves as his personal dividend as an Ancient Planter were patented outside his family, by Capt. Thomas Purefoy, on 28 Nov 1635, shortly [probably just a few days] before he [Graves] died, according to 18 above. This tends to confirm that misfortune was befalling him.

Land that was not planted and seated promptly [within three years according to 10 above] could be escheated to the Crown and become available for patenting again. If planting and seating once accomplished were subsequently abandoned, and/or the quit rents were not paid, then the land would lapse, and it could likewise be patented again.

Capt. Thomas Graves' land of 10 above probably had escheated by some 4/5 years following his death or by about 1640/41. We do not know how it was that the Francis Trewett of 26 above came to have rights to the four headrights mentioned therein. The most logical explanation is that someone else perhaps her father purchased the headrights and then gave them to her while she was still single. Her father may have purchased them from Henry Pedenden, Francis Graves' guardian. George Trewett could then have claimed the headrights after he had married her.

The 200 acres of land granted to George Trewett in 1651 in 30 above apparently had either lapsed or escheated again and were granted again to William Melling in 1663 according to 32 above. This land was said to have belonged to Capt. Graves in 34 above, so it probably was the land of 10 above. It apparently had the same metes and bounds as the land of 10 and 30 above. We lack positive proof that Francis Graves ever owned this or any other 200 acre [or 250 acre] tract of land.

If George Trewett wished to sell any land that he owned he would have to get his wife's relinquishment of dower rights before the sale could be consummated (26 above). This would have been required whether he had received the land in right of his wife or in his own right. In instances when the wife was too ill to travel to the court house, the wife was allowed to relinquish where she was then living. This apparently is what was happening in this instance.

There is evidence not presented herein that Frances Trewett was daughter of Henry Pedenden. It was only natural that Frances Trewett should be tended by her parents at their home during her terminal illness.

The similarity of the names Francis Graves and Frances Trewett and the probability that Henry Pedenden was both the guardian of Francis Graves and the father of Frances Trewett seem to be purely coincidental.

The conclusion to be reached from this long, convoluted discussion is that the land to which the certificate of 26 above was applicable was not the 200 acres of land at the Old Plantation in Northampton Co. that Capt. Thomas Graves received for his adventure of 25 Pounds in the Virginia Company, and that is described by metes and bounds in 10, 30 and 34 above. The Frances Trewett of 26 above apparently had no blood relationship to Capt. Thomas Graves.

The fifth fundamental reason concerns the basis for the issuance of the certificate of 25 above.

Headrights could be issued to an unmarried woman if the woman paid for the transportation of the headrights herself. It is unlikely that the youngest surviving female child of Capt. Thomas Graves would have had the resources to pay for the importation of any headrights herself as explained above.

The question arises "Why was the certificate of 24 above issued?". Presumably, Capt. Thomas Graves left the land of 23 above and the headrights of 25 above in his estate when he died. All of his children had reached maturity and/or died or married by 1642 except for his child Francis. Francis probably was some twelve years old in 1642. The father may have died intestate since no will for him has been found. His administrator(s) probably reasoned that the only one of his children that needed support was Francis, so that anything of value remaining in the estate including the land and the headrights was given to him for his support. This relieved the spouses of his siblings of responsibility for him.

If the certificate of 25 above was issued in right of succession from Capt. Thomas Graves, it should have devolved to his eldest surviving son Thomas, Jr. Thomas, Jr. may have been deceased by then as discussed above. Eldest son John definitely was then deceased. Since Thomas, Jr., if he was still alive, would have reached maturity and was responsible for and presumably capable of his own keep, it was logical and appropriate that the certificate should devolve to the next younger son Francis.

It could be argued that, in instances when the estate was not large enough to support all of the surviving children, guardians would have been appointed for the daughters, and the sons would have been "bound out". Since there apparently was only one surviving minor child in this instance, it was logical to appoint a guardian for him and to utilize anything of value remaining in the father's estate to support him.

The sixth fundamental reason for believing that Francis Graves was son of Capt. Thomas Graves is that several published sources say unanimously that he was. The authors of those publications include such recognized authorities as Mr. William Montgomery Sweeney and Mrs. P. W. Hiden. Mrs. Hiden gave Mr. Sweeney credit for the discovery that Francis Graves was son of Capt. Thomas Graves (16W[2]650). Apparently no one other than Mrs. Jones has challenged this.

Francis Graves' name does not appear in the record again until 1672 when he patented 714 acres of land in Rappahannock (now Essex) Co. on 20 Oct 1672 according to 36 above. Reference was made to the "land of Graves" in a deed on 4 Oct 1672 according to 35 above, which suggests that he was already living in Rappahannock Co. when he patented the 714 acres. Mrs. P. W. Hiden also suggested that it is probable that he lived in Essex before patenting land there and that the 714 acres he patented represented a choice of location rather than just the reward for transporting 14 persons (16W[2]651- 652). How long he had been living there and from whence he came there are not known.

The records of both VA and MD are currently being searched to find some record of Francis Graves during the years between 1642 and 1672. Mr. Sweeney stated "He may have removed to Elizabeth City County, where, as we have seen, his father and his brother, John, received patents for land, but owing to the loss of the greater part of the records of that county, nothing definite can be ascertained." (15W[2]390). The writer has not yet despaired of finding such record. The lack of such record does strengthen the argument that the Francis Graves of 24 above was female, and that her absence from the record resulted from her marriage to George Trewett, so that the male Francis Graves of 36 above was not the female Francis Graves of 25 above as hypothesized by Mrs. Jones. However, the totality of the evidence presented herein supports Francis Graves as the youngest son of Capt. Thomas Graves. The evidence supporting Francis Graves as son far overshadows this one item of evidence [or lack thereof] supporting the daughter hypothesis.

It could be argued that the Francis Graves of 36 above could have been the son of one of the Richard Graves imported in 1637 because he named one of his sons Richard. He also named sons Thomas, Francis and possibly John. Francis and John were names given by his father Thomas to his sons. No definite conclusions can be drawn from these naming patterns.

Mrs. Jones was quoted in the newsletter as suggesting that a person would have to be aged 21 to receive the certificate of 25 above. She implied that minors could not own land. We know from numerous wills and distributions of land to heirs that minors could own land. Fathers often made deeds of gift before they died to minor children. Minors could no doubt receive certificates for land.

Minors could not sell their land of their own volition. Guardians had to do that for them. Notice that Francis Graves was a minor about eight years old when the parcel of land that he owned was sold by his guardian in 1638 (23 above). Even if he had been born about 1621 as suggested by Mrs. Jones, he would have been only about 17 years old when his parcel of land was sold by his guardian in 1638.

While incontrovertible proof is not presented herein, the preponderance of evidence presented supports Francis Graves as son of Capt. Thomas Graves.

The writer welcomes critical comments.

QUESTIONS AND INFORMATION

MISCELLANEOUS GRAVES FAMILIES

Mr. Bob C. Meyers, Rt. 1, Box 201, Macomb, OK 74852, is not a Graves descendant, but he has sent the following. His father's step-mother was Frances (Francies) Graves Myers, born 22 Feb. 1863, d. 20 Dec. 1950, bur. block 8, row 9, (south to north) space 7, at Fairview Cem., Harrison Ave., Shawnee, OK. There were no Myers/Meyers children, as her second marriage was late in life for both of them.

Regarding her Graves children by her first marriage, there were 4 daughters and 2 sons, all deceased in 1983. Two were deceased in 1940. The live children in 1940 were: William Graves, Seibert, CO; Mrs. Effie Graves Mooney, Kingsdale, TX; Mrs. Lou Graves Eldridge, Modesto, CA; Mrs. Pearl Graves Mitchell, Riverbank, CA. The 1920 census of Pottawatomie, OK lists Thelmer Graves, age 15, living with step-father Ramsey (Loranzo) M. Myers.

GRAVES FAMILIES OF THE BRITISH ISLES

Mrs. Lois Fawcett, 4/9 Oakland Ave., Papatoetoe, Auckland, New Zealand, sent the following information. It is believed that this family was originally from England.

DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH GRAVES AND ANNIE CROSBY OF NEW ZEALAND

GENERATION 1

Joseph Graves (1) married Annie Crosby.
Children - Graves

+2. Victor Norman Graves, perhaps b.c. 1880-1886, m. Emma Smith, 1907, d. 1961.

GENERATION 2

Victor Norman Graves (2) may have been born about 1880-1886, based on when he was married, and died in 1961. He married Emma Smith, whose mother was a Fawcett, in 1907. They lived in the area of Nelson, NZ, but their descendants were not living there in 1996.

Children - Graves

3. Rita Graves, b. 1910, m. Ray Hearsey, 1938, d. by 1996. No children.

+4. Ena Graves, b. 1913, m. Ray Jepson, d. by 1996.

+5. Chloris Norman Graves, b. 1926, m. Patricia Exton.

GENERATION 3

Ena Graves (4) was born in 1913, and had died by 1996. She married Ray Jepson.

Children - Jepson

6. Colin Jepson

7. Lynette Jepson

Chloris Norman Graves (5) was born in 1926. He married Patricia Exton.

Children - Graves

8. Lorraine Graves

9. Larry Graves

10. Marilyn Graves

Mr. Joseph A. Greaves, 37 Marland St., Kenmore, Queensland 4069, Australia, is searching for information on his great-grandfather, ANTHONY GREAVES, born about 1860. The birth date is assumed because his grandfather, also named Anthony, was born 5 March 1885 at Dubmire, Newbottle, in the Houghton Le Spring registration district of Durham Co., England. His parents were given as Anthony Greaves and Isabella Gibson.

He has not been able to find any record of Anthony's birth around 1860 in the St. Catherine's House indexes, and has been unable to locate him in the 1881 census for Durham and surrounding counties. There was a death record for an Anthony Greaves in the September quarter of 1941, aged 73 (b.c. 1868), at Durham SE (ref 10a 86). This could be his grandfather.

"Anthony had a drapery store in London early this century but the location is unknown. Other family members were builders in Durham Co. and did building and maintenance work for the estate of Lord Lambton.

Apart from my grandfather, the other children from the union were Gertrude, Dorothy, Kate and William. Kate and William migrated to Canada after WW I but contact with their families has been lost for many years."

NORTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Melissa K. Ellico, (mke2@dana.ucc.nau.edu), is looking for information on the family and ancestry of KATHERINE GRAVES who was born in May 1846 in Bay Port, MI. "I know that she married my g-g-grandfather, Henry D. Pincumbe."

(ED. NOTE: Bay Port is in Huron Co., MI. Huron Co. was enumerated separately in the 1850 census, but this area was St. Clair Co. in 1840. There were no Graves families in Huron Co. or adjoining counties in the 1850 census, but the 1840 census showed Benjamin Graves in St. Clair Co. In 1850, there was a Benjamin Graves in Shiawassee Co., and a Benjamin F. Graves in Calhoun Co. Perhaps Benjamin Graves was the father of Katherine. An examination of the 1850 and perhaps also the 1860 censuses of MI should confirm the family of Katherine.)

(SPECIAL NOTE: It has been the policy of the newsletter not to accept queries from people who only provide an e-mail address and do not provide their regular post office address, since many readers are not able to respond by e-mail. This query is the only exception that has ever been made to that policy. Let me have your comments on this subject.)

SOUTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Kathy Casagranda, P.O. Box 2195, Palmer, AK 99645 (butte@corcom.com), wants to find information about her g-g-grandmother SUSAN C. GRAVES, b. 22 Dec. 1809 (prob. AL). She married Leoruchus VanHook, b. 1806, and they lived in Memphis, TN. A census record supposedly lists her as born in AL and him as born in NC.

Ms. Ann Jeffries, P.O. Box 4093, Horseshoe Bend, AR 72512, wants of learn more about her g-g-grandparents on her mothers side of the family. They were NATHAN ALVIN GRAVES and Elizabeth Esther (Hughes) Johnston, married in KY, and later moved to Norwood, MO. He was a 1st Lt. in the Army in the Civil War, and died in 1877 in Norwood, MO. Elizabeth died in 1910 in Norwood.

NAME INDEX FOR 1996

The number following each name is the page number in the 1996 newsletter where the name is found. All names are indexed, not just those of Graves descendants. If a name appears more than once on a page, it will only be shown once in the index for that page.
