GRAVES FAMILY NEWS

Mrs. Marian Hendricks, 7707 Brookline Dr., #327, Madison, WI 53719-3530, descended from JOHN GRAVES of Concord, MA, has sent the sad news that her husband, Virgil Francis Hendricks, passed away Dec. 23, 1999.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Geraldine Moore on Sept. 8, 1999. She was descended from Capt. THOMAS GRAVES of VA and is survived by her husband Eugene E. Moore of 930 North Pampas Ave., Rialto, CA 92376.

Mrs. Larry Spurgin (Bobbie Spurgin), 3470 Carlsbad Blvd., Carlsbad, CA 92008-3225, descended from Rear Adm. THOMAS GRAVES of Charlestown, MA, sent an article from The San Diego Union-Tribune, Sunday, Sept. 6, 1998, p. A10.

Big Apple's a Place to Bee

Gotham's rooftops buzzing with activity of the honey makers

By Jim Fitzgerald, Associated Press

New York -- Bears are nonexistent. Skunks are rare. Rats, pigeons and humans, although plentiful, are reluctant to approach.

New York City, it turns out, is a great place to be a bee.

"They do really well here," says David Graves, who has hundreds of thousands of honeybees in seven hives in Brooklyn, the Bronx and Manhattan. "There are so many parks and gardens and rooftop flowerpots. Even if it's dry, they can get the water they need from the East River."

They mind their own beeswax, too, and don't go around stinging sidewalk-bound New Yorkers, Graves insists. The hives are on rooftops — as high as 12 stories — to keep them undisturbed.

Each of Graves' hives can produce 50 pounds of honey a year, which he sells for $5 per half-pound at city markets. His ordinary New England honey is $3.

Graves, 48, has been raising bees for 15 years. He got the up-on-the-roof idea one spring after black bears raided hives near his Becket, Mass., home.

"To avoid the bears, we put the hives up high," says his wife, Mary. "My husband had been selling at the New York greenmarkets for five years, and he looked around and saw that one thing you have a lot of in New York is rooftops."

"Sure, some people who said they'd love to have bees couldn't convince their landlords," Graves says. "But it wasn't a big problem. I'd bring a package of bees to the greenmarket in the spring, put a sign on them, like, "We need a home. We are very gentle. We like to share our New York City honey. Do you have a rooftop?"

He got twice as many offers as he needed and hopes to expand next year....

The New York City honey has its own flavor, Graves said, but not because of any gritty big-city aftertaste. "It's because of the different flowers and different sources of nectar," he says. "It's very flowery. People who have taste-tested here, blind taste-tested, prefer the New York honey. It's sweeter."

Mr. John G. Putnam of Buffalo, NY, a great-grandson of John Card Graves, sent the following obituary of Robert Clark Graves from the Buffalo newspaper. John said, "Bob was a great guy and very proud to be a Graves." We don't presently know the ancestry of this part of the family and will appreciate help.

"Robert C. Graves, 74 of Snyder, a retired vice president of R&W Wiley Lighting Fixture Co., died Tuesday (April 18, 2000) in Erie County Medical Center after a long illness.

A native of Buffalo, he graduated from Bennett High School and attended the University of Buffalo.

He served in the Naval Air Corps from 1945 to 1947.

Graves retired in 1965 from R&W Wiley Lighting Fixture Co. He also was credit manager for Buffalo Dental Inc. until he retired in 1988.

He was a 59-year member of Westminster Presbyterian Church, where he also had been a deacon.

He was a life member of the Buffalo Canoe Club and a member of Ancient Landmarks

The results of his research program could have enormous implications for the international conservation of blue marlin, which are vanishing from the world's seas.

It is believed that the only way to save the fish is to convince fishermen of all countries to release all the blue marlin (called billfish) they catch. Even though U.S. offshore recreational anglers already release 90 percent of the billfish they catch, other countries have been reluctant to adopt release requirements, believing the hooked fish will die anyway. However, this research program is showing that almost all of the released marlin survive. The key feature of the program is that hooked marlin are tagged with a microchip in a foot-long canister. Five days later the apparatus triggers the canister to release, it bobs to the surface, and it signals a satellite. The canister is retrieved and the marlin's activities for the time it was tagged can be recovered.

QUESTIONS AND INFORMATION

MISCELLANEOUS GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Otnie Dechert, Brown County Library, 515 Pine St., Green Bay, WI 54301 (lorraine43@excite.com), is not a Graves descendant as far as she knows. She thinks her ancestry is at least mostly German. However, she found someone named Otnie Graves in genealogy 135, William Graves and Betsey Thair of Chester, Windsor Co. & Mount Holly, Rutland Co., VT (probably descended from Thomas Graves of Hartford, CT). Because Otnie is her name also, she would like to learn more about the origin and meaning of the name.

Note the middle name of Odney in Everett Odney Graves, #17 in the genealogy of Lance Graves later in this newsletter. Could that be a variation of this name?

Ms. Hester McEuen, 619 South Ivy Lane, Centralia, MO 65240 (Hqueue@aol.com), asked about her earliest known Graves ancestor, JAMES EVERETT GRAVES who married Sarah Frances Kerby and lived in Schuyler Co., MO. She said James would have been born about the 1850's.

(ED. NOTE: According to my information (genealogy 841), her Graves ancestor who married Sarah Frances Kerby was actually James David Graves, and one of his sons was James Everett Graves. The first 2 generations of my information is below. Does anyone know the ancestry of this family? The 1860 census for Missouri should list James as a child in the household of his parents, adding at least one more generation.)

GENERATION 1

James David Graves (1) was born 25 Dec. 1851 and died 30 March 1915, both in Schuyler Co., MO. He married Sarah Frances Kerby, daughter of Samuel Kerby and Mary Percy (married 16 May 1825 in Chariton Co., MO). She was born 18 Jan. 1861 in Appanoose Co., IA, and died 26 Sept. 1950.

Ms. Mary Ellen Baker, 2120 Ice St., Pacific, MO 63069 (icegal@fidmail.com) and Ms. Gail Hoeker (hoeker@gte.net) would both like to find the ancestry of JOHN GRAVES in the following genealogy.

(ED. NOTE: Is it possible he is related to the family in the preceding query? They both lived in Schuyler Co., MO.)

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN GRAVES AND NANCY MORRIS OF MO

GENERATION 1

John Graves (1) may have been born about 1820 in Missouri, and probably died by 1874 in MO. He married Nancy Morris, daughter of Joel Morris. She was born 5 June 1829 in MO, died 11 Oct. 1914, and was buried in Forest Park Cem., Kirksville, Adair Co., MO. They were probably living in Schuyler Co., MO in 1850. (Adair and Schuyler counties are adjoining, in the northeast part of the state.) Nancy married 2 more times, to Matthew Hanna on 6 Sept. 1874, and to Silas N. Holloway on 10 March 1891. The name of one husband may have been McGrudder, since she was listed as Nancy McGrudder on one daughter's death certificate. (R-1, R-2)

Mrs. Gerald Fitzgerald, 20 Sunset Rd., McDonough, GA 30253-5378, is descended from ELIZABETH GRAVES, born about 1745 in North Kingston, RI, married John Card. He was born about 1741 in North Kingston, RI, died 11 May 1830 in Burlington, Nova Scotia, and was buried in the Card burial plot. All their children were born in Nova Scotia, Canada. John's parents were Richard Card and his first wife Mercy Allen, both of North Kingston, RI.

The family lived in Canada for generations. Mrs. Fitzgerald is descended from a son of John Card and Elizabeth Graves, John Card, born 4 July 1771 in Burlington, Nova Scotia, died 2 March 1857 in Weston, Ontario, Canada, married Abigail Lockhart, daughter of John Lockhart of Newport, Nova Scotia. Mrs. Fitzgerald's g-g-grandparents Woodbury Card and Hannah Smith moved from Canada to SD.

(ED. NOTE: My suggestion for learning more about Elizabeth Graves is to search the records of North Kingston, RI, especially looking for a birth record of Elizabeth, which may list the names of her parents.)

GRAVES FAMILIES OF THE BRITISH ISLES

Mr. Melvyn D. Grierson, Unit 8/88 Collins St., Mentone, Victoria 3194, Australia (python@mail.ebbs.com.au), is looking for information on the family and ancestry of his WILLIAM GREAVES discussed below.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM GREAVES
AND MARY ANN WATERS OF BIRMINGHAM, WARWICKSHIRE, ENGLAND

GENERATION 1

William Greaves (1) married Mary Ann Waters. The marriage certificates of their son John stated that John's parents were William Greaves, a waterman, and Mary Greaves, nee Waters. The 1851 census for Warwickshire, England, stated that the following people were living at 12 Hockley St., Birmingham, Warwickshire, all born in Birmingham:

- Mary Ann Greaves, head, married, aged 61 years (b.c. 1790), female
- Mary Ann Greaves, dau, unmarried, aged 36 years (b.c. 1815), female, widows milliner
- Phoebe Greaves, dau, unmarried, aged 34 years (b.c. 1817), female, widows milliner
- John Greaves, son, unmarried, aged 22 years (b.c. 1829), male, gold guard maker

Since the 1851 census did not show Mary Ann as a widow, her husband William was apparently elsewhere during the census.

Children - Greaves

2. Mary Ann Greaves, b.c. 1815.
3. Phoebe Greaves, b.c. 1817.
4. John Greaves, b.c. 1829, m(1) Eliza Ackerley (from Lancashire, England), 1854 (Melbourne, Australia), m(2) -----. Eliza d. 1862, possibly of childbirth complications. They had 6 children, 4 of whom had died, the last of the 4 dying in 1862. They lived in Ballarat, Victoria, on the goldfields. John was 29 years of age when he arrived unassisted in Australia in July 1854 on the "Africa", although Australia records show his birth as 1827 or 1829.

Mary Graves Moody and Larry Moody, 819 Ave. Loma Vista, San Dimas, CA 91773 (Lmoody5783@aol.com), are looking for information on her Graves family and ancestry. Their present information is below.

(ED. NOTE: My suggestion is to check the 1880 and 1900 census records, and to look for death records, obituaries, and cemetery records for Thomas and Julia.)

GENERATION 1

Henry ("Harry") Greaves (1) was born in 1830 in England, was from Sheffield, England, and died 1893 in Beaver Falls, Beaver Co., PA (northwest of Pittsburgh, close to the Ohio state line). He married Anna (or Ann or Anne) Rodgers (or Rogers). She was born in 1832, was from Ginnegal, Ireland, and died in 1907 in Beaver Falls, PA. They were both buried in Beaver Falls. His tombstone says Harry Greaves and hers says Anna Rodgers Greaves.

Anna had a sister Sarah Rodgers who married ----- Gallagher, and probably a sister Alice Rodgers. Anna owned a candy store in Beaver Falls, PA. Anna and Harry apparently lived in Manchester, NH before moving to Beaver Falls, since at least some (and possibly all) of their children were born in Manchester.

Mrs. Ruth Luella McVay, 434 Paddock Court, Bristol, RI 02809 (kamcvay@aol.com), is descended from NEHEMIAH LEWIS

(ED. NOTE: Suggestions are to find a death record for Nehemiah, to locate him in the 1850 and 1860 censuses as a child in the household of his parents, and to check the Mass. Vital Records to find his birth record. There was a previous query for this family on p. 112, 1993 GFNL.)

THOMAS GRAVES OF HARTFORD, CT

Mrs. Roberta J. Glatz, 524 Copeland Hill Rd., Feura Bush, NY 12067, wrote that Edward R. Graves, whose obituary was on page 1 of the Feb. 2000 newsletter, was descended from THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT, via James Graves (1362 on p. 216 of the book) and his wife Dorcas Nichols, through their son William J. Graves (#2735 on the same page). Mrs. Glatz would like to find the parents of Dorcas Nichols.

Information about William J. Graves is in the next paragraph (note that the numbers are slightly different from those in the book). Edward R. Graves was a son of Frederick Peckham Graves, and Sarah Josephine Graves was Mrs. Glatz's grandmother.

William J. Graves (2769) was born in 1826 and died in 1893 of pneumonia. Due to the untimely death of his father about 1835-1839, William went to work at an early age, starting as a stable boy tending Erie Canal horses and mules. He worked his way up to become canal station keeper at Oneida, NY. He married Sarah Morrison, daughter of Dr. George Morrison and Sally ----- of Utica, NY, in 1847. She was born in 1831 and died in 1903. From 1849 to 1874 they had eleven children, of whom eight survived to adulthood. William and Sarah were both buried in Eagle Hill Cem., Albany, NY.

About 1870, William went to work for the New York Central Railroad as a switch tender. His four sons eventually also worked for the NYCRR and several of his daughters married railroad men. The family spread out along the rail route between Albany and Syracuse, with many grandsons also becoming railroadmen.

In 1882, William, his wife, and three youngest children, joined the family of William's older daughter in Albany, where there were jobs at the West Albany NYCRR shops.

SOUTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Mary Dennis, PO Box 179, Satsuma, AL 36572 (Alasrgal40@aol.com), is descended from JAMES GRAVES and Sarah ----- of SC & GA (gen. 78). Her ancestor, Susan Catherine Graves is listed as #14 in the following partial genealogy. More details are in the genealogy on the GFA website.

She would like to know the earlier ancestry of James Graves. Also, she would like proof of the parents of Elisha H. J. Strickland (husband of Susan Catherine Graves), and information on the relationship (if any) between Nancy Wilson (mother of Elisha) and Margaret Wilson (mother of Susan).

DESCENDANTS OF JAMES GRAVES OF SC AND GA

GENERATION 1

James Graves (1) was born 1755-1765, and died 1817 in Wilkes Co., Ga. He was very likely descended from Capt. Thomas Graves, 1608 immigrant to Jamestown, Va. He married Sarah ----- . She was born 1755-1765, and died 1821, also in Wilkes Co., Ga. They apparently lived in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., S.C., since at least one child was born there. It is interesting to note that Lancaster Co. is next to Chesterfield Co., where the Robert Graves lived about whom a book has been published (Robert Graves of Anson Co., NC and Chesterfield Co., SC, by Kenneth Vance Graves, 1980). The Robert Graves of Chesterfield Co., S.C. (born about 1735-40) is not believed to have had a brother James, but James could have been a son or a nephew.

Children - Graves

- +2. Robert Charles Graves, b. 1788, m. Margaret Wilson.
- +3. daughter, m. William Davidson.
- +4. Hannah Graves, m. Littleton Mackey (or McKey).
- 5. Sarah Graves, m. John Nesbit.

GENERATION 2

Robert Charles Graves (2) was born 1788 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., Camden District, S.C. He married Margaret ("Peggy") Wilson. She was born 1793 in S.C. He was in the 1820 Wilkes Co., Ga. census. Based on the 1830 census for Newton Co., Ga., he was born between 1780 and 1790, and his wife was born between 1790 and 1800. The 1830 census showed him with 8 children. In 1840, he was in the census for Chambers Co., Ala. Based on these census records, it appears that between 1830 and 1840 two sons and three daughters had left home and three sons and two daughters had been born. There is some uncertainty about some of the children listed below.

In regard to the unnamed daughters listed, it is believed that one was named Margaret, and that one daughter married George Marlowe and moved to Mississippi. Frances Graves, who married Nath Barber on 31 Jan. 1844 in Chambers Co., Ala., may have been a daughter. Also, Catherine Graves who married Elisha H. J. Strickland on 30 Jan. 1851 in Talladega Co., Ala., and Jane Graves who married Thomas Gann on 28 Sept. 1853, may have been daughters.

The 1850 census for Talladega Co., Ala. shows Robert C. Graves, 62, farmer, b. S.C., Margaret, 57, b. S.C., Catherine, 18, b. Ga., Jane, 16, b. Ga., John, 15, b. Ga., Jefferson, 14, b. Ala.

William A., Robert B., John, and Jeff moved to Texas around 1850, settling first near Cumby, Hopkins Co., Texas.

DESCENDANTS OF LEONARD B.
GRAVES AND SUSAN DAY
OF ALBEMARLE CO., VA & JEFFERSON
CO., MO

GENERATION 1

Leonard B. Graves (1) was born about 1812 and probably died about 1895. He married Susan T. Day on 18 April 1833 in Albemarle Co., VA. The minister was Francis Bowman, Presbyterian. Bondsman was Charles Day, and witness Ira Garrett. Susan was born in 1816 and died about 1880-82. According to census records, their first child was born in VA, the next 4 in OH, and the others in MO. The first 7 children were in the 1850 census of Jefferson Co., MO, and the others were from the 1870 census for Marion Twp., St. Francois Co., MO. The occupation of Leonard was listed in the 1870 census as wheelwright, and in later censuses as farmer.

It is possible that Leonard is connected to Thomas W. Graves who married Mildred P. Thrift, 7 March 1825, Albemarle Co., VA, minister Francis Bowman. He was born 1811, son of Elijah Graves. It is also possible that he is connected to Thomas Graves, born about 1787 who married second Phebe Ames, and moved to MO. Both of these men were descended from Capt. Thomas Graves of VA (genealogy 169).

Children - Graves

GENERATION 2

Susan Rebecca Graves (4) was born Feb. 1839. She married Samuel Craig on 25 Dec. 1853. She may have married Mr. Shumate as her second husband. William Arthur Graves referred to one sister as Rebecca Shumate, so it is assumed that this is the one and that she had a second marriage to Mr. Shumate. The list of children below are from the 1870 census for Marion Twp., St. Francois Co., MO, taken July 1870.

Children - Craig

14. Mary E. Craig, b.c. 1856.

Charles L. ("Charley") Graves (8) was born 8 July 1849 in Jefferson Co., MO, died 3 Sept. 1916, and was buried in the Concord Cem., near St. Genevieve, MO. He first married Amanda Eaves in 1872. She was born 20 Oct. 1855 in MO, and died 22 Feb. 1880. The 1880 census showed Charles and children living with Amanda's brother William D. Eaves and family in Watkins Twp., Dent Co., MO in June 1880.

After Amanda's death, he married second Maggie (Chandler) Whittaker in 1884 in Springfield, MO. She was born 19 Sept. 1867 and died 7 April 1925. Charles and Maggie divorced in 1887 (Christian Co., MO Book 185, no. 604). They remarried, and divorced again 14 Sept. 1905 in Greene Co., MO (Greene Co., MO div. records 40029, Book 92, p. 14, Office of County Clerk). They lived in Marion Twp., Christian Co., Chadwick area for at least one year (personal property tax not paid, records line 0874, June 1, 1887, means he probably lived there in 1886). Charles returned to the St. Genevieve area, died there, and was buried with his father, Leonard.

The Springfield, MO City Directory for 1890-91 lists Charles Graves, laborer, living at 1020 Mt. Vernon, Springfield, Greene Co., MO. The 1900 census for Campbell Twp., Greene Co., MO lists Charles L. Graves, stone mason, 50, b. July 1849, married 16 years, b. MO, parents b. VA; wife Maggie E., 32, b. Sept. 1867, b. TN, parents b. She was born in June 1863. At marriage he was of Bonne Terre, St. Francois Co., and she was of Big River Mills, St. Francois Co. The family was listed in the 1900 census for St. Francois Co., MO. In addition to the 2 children, a niece, Ruthie Benham, b. Feb. 1885, was also listed.

James William Graves (1) was born 10 Dec. 1871, probably in AR, and died 29 June 1930. He grew up in a small town in AR. He married Wilhelmina Kate Spencer on 22 Oct. 1916. They lived in White Bluffs, WA, until that town was taken over by the Hanford nuclear facility. After James died, Wilhelmina remarried to Walter Ray Small on 5 May 1938, and they had 2 daughters, Ella May Small, born 16 Aug. 1938, and Nellie Kay Small, born 12 Dec. 1940. (ED. NOTE: Suggestions include: (1) Try to find a death certificate and obituary for James William Graves and his wife. That might give names of his parents and other relatives and where he was born. (2) Find James in the 1920 census to see where he was born and see other information. (3) Find James as a child in the household of his parents in the 1880 census.)

Mrs. Kathy Graves, 307 Fort St., Waynesville, MO 65583 (kat@zigs.net), is looking for information on LANCE GRAVES, born 1793 in VA, died in KY, m. Lovena McCoy. She says his father was LANCELOT GRAVES, born 1760, married Nancy Clark, and Lancelot's father was THOMAS GRAVES. She also believes there is Indian ancestry and wonders where this is. She asks whether there is a connection to Capt. Thomas Graves of VA.

(ED. NOTE: This family was last discussed in the 1994 GFNL, pages 41-42. The first 2 generations of the genealogy of Thomas Graves, father of Launcelot Graves, (gen. 126) are below, followed by the first 2 generations of the genealogy for Lance Graves (gen. 276). It is speculated that Launcelot Graves might have been descended from John Graves of St. Mary's Co., MD (gen. 247). All help and proof will be appreciated.)

DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS GRAVES OF NORTHAMPTON CO., VA

Contributors of this information are Mr. William W. Howe, 411 Springwood Lane, San Antonio, TX 78216, and Mrs. Rosella Glover, 6280 Broadmoor Dr., La Mesa, CA 91942.

GENERATION 1

Thomas Graves (1) married about 1758, probably in Northampton Co., VA. He lived in Northampton Co., VA.

A Joshua Nelson married Elizabeth Greaves, daughter of John Greaves who died in 1748 in St. Mary's Co., MD (genealogy 247). The will of Joshua Nelson was written in 1744, filed in St. Mary's Co., MD, and mentions his wife Elizabeth, children Lancelot, Mary Ann, Chloe, and Seneca, and slaves. Joshua apparently died between the codicil date of 11 May 1744 and 9 July 1744 when the will was proved.

The will in part states: "In the name of God, Amen, I Joshua Nelson of Northumberland Co. (VA)... I leave to Elizabeth, my loving wife, the use of four negroes... I give to my son Lancelot forty-five pounds sterling..." It is believed that Lancelot may have been by a previous marriage, before Joshua married Elizabeth Greaves.

It is interesting to note that the names of Mary Ann and Chloe were also used by Elizabeth's brother Thomas Greaves for his children. Considering that the name of Lancelot is very rare and has not been found among the descendants of Capt. Thomas Graves of VA, is it possible that Lancelot Graves (son of Thomas Graves of Northampton Co., VA) could be part of this family of St. Mary's Co., MD?

Northampton Co. and Northumberland Co., VA are close to each other. Also, Lancelot Graves' children are believed to have included Lance (named after him), Elizabeth and Joshua (these last 2 might have been named for his sister and brother, since Thomas Greaves had a sister and brother by this name).

Children - Graves

+2. Launcelot Graves, b.c. 1760, m. Nancy Clark, possibly c. 1792.

GENERATION 2

Launcelot (or Lancelot) Graves (2) was born about 1760 in Northampton Co., VA, and may have died in Loudoun Co., VA. In one biographical sketch he was called Lot. He married Nancy Clark. They apparently lived in Loudoun and Fairfax counties, VA, since that is where Elizabeth and Joshua were born.

The 1810 census for Loudoun Co., VA shows a household headed by a Nancy Graves who is probably this Nancy. If so, it would seem that Launcelot must have died between 1800 and 1810 (after 1800, because the household contained 2 males under 10, 1 female under 10, and 1 female 10-16 (Elizabeth)). The census also shows one male and one female over 45; although the male could have been Launcelot, since he would have been 50, it is more likely that his or her parents were living in the household, probably hers.

There may have been an older son, Lance Graves, who was no longer living in the household in 1810. Lance was born about 1793 in VA, married Lovena -----, and moved to Marshall Co., KY (see genealogy 276).

Since Lance, born about 1793, may be the oldest child, it is possible that Launcelot didn't marry Nancy until about 1792, when he would have been about 32. If Nancy is the female, age 16-26 in the census, then she was probably born about 1784 (1784-94), and may have been Launcelot's second wife. That would mean at least the older children were by a first wife. On the other hand, it is possible that Nancy was born earlier, and the 1810 census was either wrong about her age or the female 16-26 was someone else (such as an older daughter)

Children - Graves

3. Lance Graves (possible child), b.c. 1793, m. Lovena ----- . For descendants, see genealogy 276.
- +4. Elizabeth Graves, b. 5 June 1797, m. George Smith, 24 Dec. 1818, d. 25 July 1883.
- +5. Joshua Graves, b. 7 Oct. 1799, m. Elizabeth Henderson, 1819, d. 1878.
6. daughter, b.c. 1801 (1800-1809).
7. son, b.c. 1805 (1800-1809).

DESCENDANTS OF LANCE GRAVES
AND LOVENA V. McCOY
OF VA, MO & KY

This information was contributed by Mrs. Maxine Lawhorn, Route 1, Box 116, Stillwater, OK 74074.

GENERATION 1

Lance Graves (1) was born about 1793 in VA, and died between 1860 and 1870 in KY. He married Lovena V. McCoy by 1840, probably in VA or TN. She was born about 1812 in SC. They lived in Marshall Co., KY, near Nashville, and in Pulaski Co., MO. Lance Graves sold land in Pulaski Co., MO in 1856-57. They were listed in the 1850 census in Marshall Co., KY, p. 37, dwelling 598, family 599. Lance was also in the 1860 Marshall Co., KY census as head of household, but Lovena was head of household in the 1870 Marshall Co. census, indicating that Lance died before then.

Lance Graves may be descended from a Thomas Graves who lived in Northampton Co., VA (genealogy 126). This Thomas had a son Launcelot Graves, born about 1760, who married Nancy Clark, and may have been the father of Lance Graves.

Mr. Anthony Graves, PO Box 1833, Charleston, SC 29402 (asgraves@bellsouth.net), is looking for the ancestry of his ARCHIBALD GRAVES, born 1848, who married Martha Jane Caulder, and lived in Marion Co., SC.

(ED. NOTE: The information I have for this family is below. It seems likely that this Archibald is related to Archibald Graves of NC & Pike Co., AL (gen. 63), Hardy Graves (gen. 73), and John Graves (gen. 92). To find the parentage of Archibald Graves, he needs to be found as a child in the household of his parents in the 1850 and 1860 censuses, probably in SC, NC or VA.)

Ms. Joan Clark, 443A Tarter Apts., Commerce, TX 75428 (Mjohnson@neto.com), is looking for information and ancestry for NANCY GRAVES, born 9 Sept. 1796 in SC, died 24 April 1870 in Lincoln Co., TN. She married John Cole about 1820. He was born 17 Aug. 1795 in Richmond Co., NC, and died 10 June 1844 in Lincoln Co., TN.

John and Nancy Cole moved from Richmond Co., NC to Lincoln Co., TN after 1825. Their first 3 children were born in Richmond Co., NC. Joseph Cole, the fourth child, her ancestor, was born 10 Dec. 1827 in Lincoln Co., TN.

(ED. NOTE: It seems possible that Nancy Graves was a daughter of William Graves of SC & TN (gen. 37), who had an unknown daughter born about 1796 in Abbeville Co., SC. William probably lived in both SC and NC, and went to TN about 1804. He and/or his children lived in Franklin Co. and Lincoln Co., TN. The two counties are next to each other in south central TN on the border with AL, and Lincoln is next to Giles Co., which had a number of Graves families also.)

Mrs. Ruby D. Harris, 8065 East Shakhoka Dr., Olive Branch, MS 38654, has been looking for the ancestry of her ancestor LOUISA GRAVES who married Samuel Booth. It has now been found that she is descended from BEVERLY GRAVES of Caroline Co., VA, as shown below. More information about this part of the family would be appreciated.

GENERATION 1

Beverly Graves (1) is believed to have been born in the 1750's in Caroline Co., VA. He lived in Caroline Co., and all his children were born there. It is believed that his father was John Graves.

The Order Book, Caroline Co., VA, 1799-1802, page 80, shows Beverly Graves deceased. A Mr. Woolfolk was appointed guardian for John G. and Benjamin Graves.

It has been believed that Sally Graves who married William Gregory (gen. 288) was a daughter of Beverly. Although Sally and William named a son Beverly, it seems very unlikely that Sally was a daughter of Beverly. She was probably his sister, since she was probably born about 1740 or so, based on the age of her husband and the birthdates of her children.
