Mr. LaVerne E. Graves, 905 North 28th Place, Renton, WA 98056, sent an obituary for GFA member Marian Elsie Loeffler, who passed away 12 Nov. 1998 at Riverside, CA.

Marian and her husband, Bob, moved from Bremerton, WA to Riverside, CA about four months ago to be closer to their family, since Bob's health wasn't too good.

LaVerne wrote that it was through the Graves Family Association that Marian and LaVerne located each other and discovered they were cousins, both descended from THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT.

The obituary states:

"Services for Marian Elsie Loeffler, 65 will be at 3 p.m. Monday at Thomas Miller Mortuary in Corona [CA]. She died Thursday of a heart attack at Riverside Community Hospital....

Mrs. Loeffler was born in Santa Ana. She lived two months in Riverside and two months in Corona. She was a homemaker.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Corona.

Mrs. Loeffler enjoyed bowling and genealogy.

She is survived by her husband, Robert; three daughters, Robin McComb of Laguna Hills, Ruth Sigmon of Garden Grove and Renell Vasantine of Anaheim Hills; two sons, Richard of Orange and Robert II of Corona; 11 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and a brother, Billie Jones of San Luis Obispo."

Mrs. Dorothy H. Lambert, 752 Pendegast Circle, Woodland, CA 95695 (dotlamb@ccio.com), descended from THOMAS GRAVES of Hartford, CT, sent an obituary that appeared in the Sacramento Bee about Dec. 3, 1998.

QUESTIONS AND INFORMATION

MISCELLANEOUS GRAVES FAMILIES

Ms. Janet K. Pease, 10310 West 62nd Place, #102, Arvada, CO 80004, is not a Graves descendant. However, but she has interest in some Graves descendants as she prepares sketches and genealogies for various families.

She is seeking a marriage record with date and place for William N. Wilson and NANCY GRAVES, about 1838, probably in vicinity of Lee Co., IA, but not recorded there, so could be MO. She is presently preparing a genealogy of the Points-Poyntz family in America, and William N. Wilson is a Points descendant through his mother. William died before 1850 and Nancy (Graves) Wilson was shown in the 1850 census for Lee Co., IA, with 4 children, in the 1860 census for Union Twp., Clark Co., MO, with the same 4 children, and in the 1880 census for Mercer Co., MO. Her known children were: Stephen H. Wilson, b. 1839; Melissa Wilson, b. 1840; Sarah Wilson, b. 1842, perhaps married George Wells; and Iowa Wilson, b. 1847, m. James Thomas. She has provided some information for the descendants of Thomas Graves and Miss Liles of TN (gen. 57, a

William N. Wilson's probable sister, Nancy Wilson, married a William Graves in 1838 in Lee Co., IA, but apparently had no children and died before 1841, when he remarried to yet another Points' descendant, Susanna Allphin in Lee Co., IA. She apparently also died without children. (William Graves is #8 in the following genealogy.)

It is also desired to get this genealogy more complete and to find the earlier ancestry of Thomas Graves. On pages 38, 40, and 41, 1994 GFNL were a couple of queries and a chart showing probable and possible relationships between Thomas Graves (gen. 57), John Graves and Susannah ----- of SC & Carter Co., TN (gen. 92), Archibald Graves of NC & Pike Co., AL (gen. 63), and Hardy Graves of SC & Pike Co., AL (gen. 73). But the earlier ancestry is still unknown.

DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS GRAVES AND MISS LILES OF TENN.

GENERATION 1

Thomas Graves (1) was probably born in Tennessee about 1750. He married a Miss Liles. He lived in Carter Co., Tenn., and probably North and/or South Carolina. He had at least one son named William and probably had other children.

George Perkins, father of Anna Perkins, said in his application for a Rev. War pension that he lived on the Watauga River in N.C. for several years. The Watauga River flows from what is now Watauga Co., N.C. across the state line into Johnson and Carter counties, Tenn. The 1798 tax list for Carter Co., Tenn. shows: Benjamin Graves, 1 white poll; John Graves, 60 acres; George Perkins, 1 white poll, 100 acres; Jacob Perkins, 1 white poll, 240 acres. This John Graves was about 50 years old and the father of Benjamin and Nancy Ann Graves who married Jacob Perkins.

Also, see the genealogy for Hardy Graves who was born about 1775 in SC and died in Pike Co., AL. Could this Hardy be another son of Thomas Graves?

It is possible that there is a connection between this family and that of John Graves of Frederick Co., Va. and Coshocton Co., Ohio, mainly based on intermarriages with the Perkins and Wright families. On this same basis, there is also a slight possibility of a connection with the family of John D. Graves of Md., Mo., and Ky.

GENERATION 2

William Graves (2) was born in Tennessee about 1776, and died 11 Aug. 1830 in Lawrence Co., Ky. He married Anna or Anne ("Annie") E. Perkins, in 1802. She was a daughter of George Perkins (Rev. War soldier, one of 6 children of William Perkins and Mary ("Polly") Black) and Keziah Manning. The family lived in Carter Co., Tenn., then moved to Lawrence Co., Kentucky.

After William's death, the family moved to Lee Co., Iowa to the town of Primrose. Some of the family members apparently stayed in Ky.

- +4. George Graves, b. 1805, m. Lucy Childers.

- +8. William Liles Graves, b. 6 April 1818, m(1) Nancy Wilson, 2 Dec. 1838, m(2) Sarah Olfen, 7 Jan. 1841, m(3) Marinda Haskins, 14 Jan. 1844, d. 11 April 1861.

William Liles Graves (8) was born 6 April 1818 in Floyd Co., Ky. He first married Nancy Wilson on 2 Dec. 1838. She died three days after they were married. He secondly married Sarah Olfen or Susan (or Susana) Allphin on 7 Dec. 1841. She died a year and a half later. He thirdly married Marinda Haskins on 14 Jan. 1844, supposedly at Primrose, Lee Co., Iowa. She was born in 1827 in Ohio. While they lived in Iowa, apparently a younger brother named Loudus Haskins was living with them, according to the 1850 census. He was 21 in 1850 and also born in Ohio.

Sometime after late 1850 and prior to April 1852, the family moved to Lewis Co., Mo. They were in the Lee Co., Iowa 1850 census and were on the 1860 census for Lewis Co., Mo. They were in Lewis Co., Mo. by April 1852, since the 1860 census indicates that their son, John F. Graves, was born in Missouri. William Liles Graves, bought 160 acres of farm land in Lewis Co. somewhere near Monticello and built a brick home. He died 11 April 1861 at his home, reportedly from an illness caused by inhalation of fumes from slaking of lime for mortar for the brick house. He was only 43 at the time of his death, his oldest child, James Morgan, being only 14. The family stayed together with the older boys running the farm until at least 1870, as they were on the 1870 census of Lewis Co., Mo. Sometime in 1870 or 1871, George Wayne Graves made a trip to Kansas, and came back and encouraged the family to sell the place and move to Kansas, which they did.

Turner moved to Colorado about 1908 or 1909 and is believed to have died at Laramie, Colorado, date not known.

Mr. William Haylock, 2 Forrest Ave., Marino, South Australia 5049, Australia, and Mr. Graham Jaunay, 7 East Terrace, South Plympton, South Australia 5038, Australia, are both descended from the family discussed below. Recently, Mr. Christopher ("Chris") Graves, 21 The Avenue, Colchester CO3 3PA, England, descended from JAMES GRAVES of Cottenham, Cambridgeshire, England, sent some information to Bill Haylock which enabled him to get back one more generation. Help on the families of Cottenham and vicinity would be appreciated.

DESCENDANTS OF THOMAS GRAVES AND ANN ----- OF COTTENHAM, CAMBRIDGESHIRE, ENGLAND & ADELAIDE, AUSTRALIA

GENERATION 1

Thomas Graves (1) married Ann -----. In addition to John, they probably had 13 other children. (R-1)

Children - Graves

- +2. John Graves, b. 1805, m. Lydia Woods, 18 May 1831, d. 18 May 1877.
- 3. other children

GENERATION 2

John Graves (2) was born in 1805¹ in Cottenham, Cambridgeshire, England, was baptized in 1807 in All Saints, Cottenham, Cambridgeshire, and died 18 May 1877 in Adelaide, SA, Australia. He married Lydia Woods, daughter of William Gunnell and Ann Woods, on 18 May 1831 in Milton, Cambridgeshire, England. She was born about March 1809 in Cambridgeshire, baptized in 1810 at Milton, and died 5 June 1886 in Adelaide, Australia. They were both buried in Walkerville, South Australia.

Their daughter, Ann, and her husband, emigrated from Southampton, England in 1853. The following year, John and Lydia emigrated with 6 of their children on the "Pestonjee Bomanjee" or "Prestongee Bomangee". The shipping list for the "Prestongee Bomangee" showed it left Southampton and arrived in Port Adelaide, South Australia on 8 Oct. 1854 with the following passengers:

On the same ship were the parents of Martin Fullston (Ann's husband), John and Jemima (Watts) Fullston, and 7 of Martin's siblings. They were all from Cambridgeshire.

James Graves, the first child of John and Lydia, was married prior to the family migrating. It appears he remained in England.

The 1851 census shows the family living at Back Lane, Cottenham, with children Ann, Elizabeth, Harriet, Caroline, and Ezra. John was listed as agricultural laborer, and they were all born at Cottenham except for Lydia who was born at Milton.

There may be a connection of this Graves family with other Graves families of Cottenham (gen. 269 and gen. 648), and also with the Graves family of Haddenham, Cambridgeshire (gen. 139), since that place is only about 5 miles north of Cottenham.

¹ According to 1851 English census.

12. Bertie (probably Albert) Graves; he was not found in the South Australia birth index, and did not emigrate with the others. Perhaps he was born between other children and died before the family left England.

GENERATION 3

Ann Graves (5) was born in 1837. She married Martin Fullston, son of John Fullston and Jemmima Watts, on 14 Feb. 1853 at the Parish Church, Cottenham, Cambridgeshire, by banns. He was born in 1832 and died 18 Aug. 1903. The Fullston name is sometimes spelled Fulston, Fullstone and Fullston. Fullstone appears to be the original spelling.

Ann and Martin emigrated from Southampton, England to Adelaide, South Australia on the "Calabar", arriving 1 Aug. 1853. Ann was 18 and Martin 21, both from Cambridgeshire, according to the shipping list.

Birth records for all the children (except Minnie) were from the SA Birth Index, 1842-1906. The first 3 children were born in Prospect Village, SA, and the others in Gumeracha or North Gumeracha, SA.

NORTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Mrs. Audrey Dodes, PO Box 7, Concord, MI 49237, is not a Graves descendant. She is descended from Jacob Whitcomb, brother of Aurenah or Aurelia Whitcomb who married EDWARD GRAVES on 18 Dec. 1824 in Kortright, Delaware Co., NY.

According to family tradition, the Whitcomb children were orphaned, and Jacob was given a home with a Whitney family. She would like to learn more about this family and the parents of Jacob and Aurelia.

According to Mrs. Veva L. O'Dell, previously of Hanover, MI, but now of unknown address, "Aurelia was one of 5 known siblings. According to my grandfather (deceased), she moved to Indiana and died in Wisconsin. Her 4 brothers, all surnamed Whitcomb, were: Thomas, b.c. 1800, Delaware or Columbia Co., NY; Josiah, b. 1803, Delaware Co., NY; Jesse, b. 1809, Delaware Co., NY; Jacob, b. 5 April 1812, Delaware Co., NY. Thomas and Josiah died in NY state. Jesse and Jacob died in Michigan."

The following item appeared in the Delaware County Gazette, Dec. 22, 1824.

Married -- At Kortright, in this county, on Monday the 18th inst. By Elder Maybie, Mr. Edward Graves, aged eighty-five years, to Miss Aurenah Whitcomb, aged thirteen years." (Ages italicized in original notice.) Elder Maybie was Baptist.

Mrs. Dodes sent some records from the town of Kortright, NY:

1800 census, Abner Graves

1810 census, Edward Graves

1820 census, Thomas Graves

1830 census, Thomas Graves

1840 census, no Graves households

Will Book, Orange Graves, died 17 Dec. 1849

ED. NOTE: Based on the ages at marriage, Aurenah was born about 1811 and Edward Graves was born about 1761. Perhaps Aurenah needed a home and Edward needed a baby sitter or someone to look after him.

The Edward Graves in the 1810 census is probably this one. I can't identify him or the Thomas Graves in the 1820 and 1830 census. However, Delaware Co., NY and Abner and Orange Graves are definitely identified with the descendants of immigrant JOHN GRAVES of Concord, MA. Abner Graves is probably the one who was a son of Stephen Graves and Patience Hatch, and Orange Graves was probably the one b. 1783 and m. Aurelia Sykes, son of Ezekiel Graves.

My guess is that Edward Graves was descended from John Graves of Concord also. Can anyone identify him or provide more information?

SOUTHERN GRAVES FAMILIES

Mrs. Betty W. Hibbs, 11920 Louisville Rd., Cox's Creek, KY 40013, is still looking for the ancestry of her JOHN GRAVES who married Peggy -----. Mrs. Athna May Porter, P.O. Box 30654, Billings, MT 59107-0654, is also descended from this part of the family. The first 3 generations of information that I have received are below. This family is almost certainly descended from Capt. Thomas Graves of VA.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHN GRAVES AND PEGGY ----- OF FAYETTE CO., KY

John Graves (1) died by 1810, as indicated by the marriage of his daughter, Elizabeth Graves. The license also states that she is a daughter of John Graves. John married Peggy -----. Her maiden name may have been Mason or Whitesides. She was born 14 Feb. 1766 and died 9 Jan. 1833.

There was a James Graves, born about 1765, descended from Capt. Thomas Graves of VA, who moved from VA to KY, and had a daughter, Mary Ann, who married William Whitesides. James had a brother John Graves who might have been this John. This John Graves (brother of James) was a son of Thomas Graves and Elizabeth ----- of Culpeper Co., VA, and a grandson of John Graves and Frances -----. John Graves (brother of James) had at least one child, Mary ("Polly") Graves, born about 1797, who married W. W. Graves. It is interesting to note that Thomas Graves (born 1747), an older brother of James and John Graves, may have had a second marriage to a Mary Mason, since the Mason name is connected with the family in this genealogy. If this is the correct John Graves, the descent from Capt. Thomas Graves is: Thomas¹, John², Thomas³, John⁴, John⁵ m. Frances -----, Thomas⁶ m. Elizabeth -----, John⁷.

Another Graves family that moved from Fayette Co., KY to Cumberland Co., KY was that of Thomas Graves who married Mary Chilton: Thomas¹, John², Thomas³, John⁴, Thomas⁵ m. Ann Davenport, Rice⁶, Thomas⁷ m. Mary Chilton. Although closely related to the John⁷ Graves in the preceding paragraph (2nd cousins) this does not seem to be the family of the John Graves who married Peggy.

The names and birth dates of the children listed below are from an old Bible in the possession of Betty W. Hibbs.
